New partners come together in season 2014

Mark Hutchings returns to East Perth under the new model

By Tracey Lewis

The trade is complete.

As of this season every West Coast Eagles listed player will be aligned to East Perth and every Fremantle Dockers player aligned to Peel Thunder.

The first steps towards the new Partnering Model were taken in 2013 when Eagles and Dockers players who were listed on 2012 East Perth and Peel Thunder playing lists were transferred to either the Royals or Thunder, depending on their AFL listing.

For example Matt Rosa, who was aligned to Peel in 2005 when he was drafted by the Eagles, was moved to East Perth for season 2013 during which he played six games for the Royals.

WAFL 2013 grand final Simpson medallist Mark Hutchings may have won last year's premiership with West Perth, but through the new alignment will return to his club of origin, East Perth, where he made his WAFL debut in 2008 before being drafted onto St Kilda's rookie list.

Another local, Jacob Brennan, will become a Royal after being groomed through the East Fremantle system.

"The football family has worked hard together to develop the Partnering Model in the best interests of WA's AFL clubs overall," said Steve Hargrave, WAFC General Manager Pathways and Competitions.

"It will provide an opportunity to build a sustainable platform for the WAFL, while also meeting the needs of WA's AFL clubs in a win-win for all parties.

"This is an investment of more than $5 million into the WAFL over five years. Importantly, the WAFL clubs keep their identities, heritage and control over their future, the District pathway remains the same and major new funding is delivered to the WAFL.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

Total Player Payments (TPP)

- Football match payments set at $230,000
- Introduction of a Marquee Player Allowance of $10,000 and an increase of the Veterans Allowance from $10,000 to $20,000. The introduction of the Marquee Player Allowance and increase in the Veteran's Allowance is designed to retain and reward long-serving WAFL players and entice retired or delisted AFL players to return to the WAFL.

Marquee players are defined as those who bring value to a club and the league both on and off the field and must be agreed to by the WAFL manager after a written request by the club. AFL or State League playing experience and individual honours which highlight the value that the player will bring to the club and competition will be considered as part of this determination. Only one player can be nominated by each club as a marquee player. The Veterans Allowance can be applied on request to players who have played over 100 league or (AFL games returning to club of origin) for their club.

- Other benefits (e.g. travel costs, medical insurance) increased from $10,000 to $20,000
- Total Player Payments set at $280,000

AFL/WAFL Club Partnership Model

- Replaces the AFL Player Service Agreement
- Partner clubs allocated 65% of TPP in each category of Section 5 (i.e. $182,000 TPP)
- All 40 players listed with the WAFL Partner club as at July 1st 2013 are deemed to be "local district" players for that club irrespective of their origin, in order for the model to commence.
- There is provision for the WAFC to approve the club adding "Non district, Interstate, Non district AFL delisted and Interstate AFL delisted" players to their list but solely within the parameters of 8.12 and 8.13.

"The football family has worked hard together to develop the Partnering Model in the best interests of WA Football overall," Steve Hargrave

"We are pleased that the AFL Clubs will now have a real incentive in ensuring the football family develops a strong and sustainable WAFL competition. Key points of this will include benefits such as shared services, marketing and administration assistance and staff and player development.

"I would also like to acknowledge the leadership and contribution of the WAFL club Presidents and CEOs, AFL clubs and WAFC staff and congratulate them on their hard work in bringing this concept to fruition."

Each of the non-partnering clubs, Claremont, East Fremantle, Perth, South Fremantle, Subiaco, Swan Districts and West Perth, will receive $7,000 in compensation for losing returning AFL-listed players to the Royals or Thunder as part of the arrangement.

The Partnering Model will come into play for a minimum of five years and a major part of the agreement involves the Eagles and Dockers each paying an additional annual $450,000 to the West Australian Football Commission on top of their annual rent and royalties payments.

The model came into effect after the WAFL clubs rejected the Eagles and Dockers' bid to have stand alone teams in the State league competition.

There have been a few Rules and Regulation changes ahead of the new season to help work with the implementation of the new model, including the introduction of a Marquee Player Allowance.

WAFL Partner Club Recruitment (2014)

The following outlines the WAFC - WAFL process given a WAFL Partner club's request to recruit, other than a Local District Player (1 point) for season 2014. The WAFC will assess the WAFL Partnering club and the AFL Partnering club to ensure a comprehensive player assessment is conducted.

- a. WAFL Partner club to formally apply in writing to the WAFC outlining the reasons for the need to recruit.
- b. The WAFC to complete a WAFL Partner club player list assessment.
- c. The WAFC to complete an AFL Partner club player list assessment.
- d. List assessment finalized following the AFL 2013 Draft & Rookie Draft.
- e. Following completion of assessment process the WAFL Advisory Committee will deliberate prior to presenting to the WAFL Management Committee.
- f. WAFL Management Committee appraisal presented to the WAFC Football Affairs Committee for final decision.
- g. The basis for the list assessment for 2014 is contained in 8.13

\ The Senior List of players must not exceed a maximum of 130 cumulative player points.*

\ AFL listed senior or rookie players allocated to WAFL Clubs will not be awarded a point value and will not be included in the minimum of 55 players*

Jacob Brennan is now an East Perth player

"The introduction of the Marquee Player Allowance and increase in the Veteran's Allowance is designed to retain and reward long-serving WAFL players and entice retired or delisted AFL players to return to the WAFL," Hargrave said.

"We believe that Marquee Players will add value to the Clubs and Competition, particularly in the areas of experience, player development, increased profile and promotion."

Some of the Rules and Regulation changes include:

- Partner clubs must apply to have any non-district, interstate, non-district AFL delisted players on their squads.
- All 40 players who were listed with the Royals and the Thunder as at July 1, 2013 are deemed to be local district players and are allowed to stay with their respective clubs, no matter of their club of origin.
- Due to its ninth placing in 2013, Peel has been granted permission to recruit a maximum of two non-district players for the 2014 season.

WAFL's best in Foxtel Cup blockbusters

WAFL premiers West Perth and 2013 runners-up East Perth take on two powerhouse teams in their opening knock-out round of this year's Foxtel Cup competition.

The Falcons will take on VFL premiers Box Hill at Etihad Stadium on May 6, while the Royals will battle SANFL premiers Norwood at Patersons Stadium on May 27.

As was the case last year, there is $100,000 up for grabs for the winner. Reigning Foxtel Cup champions West Adelaide return in 2014, with Williamstown (VFL), Prospect State (TSFL) and the Royals the other State sides to earn automatic entry.

The Foxtel Cup pits the best teams from each state league competition against each other in a knockout format. NEAFL sides Aspley and Belconnen will play off for the right to earn the final position among the leading eight state league sides in the country.

AFL General Manager Broadcasting, Scheduling and Major Projects Simon Lethlean said the AFL was delighted with the continued strength of the teams that would contest the fourth season of the Foxtel Cup, with one title now having been claimed by an SANFL club (West Adelaide, 2013), a WAFL club (Claremont, 2012) and a VFL club (Williamstown, 2011) since the competition's launch in 2011.

All matches in Round one, the semi-finals and the grand final will again be played on Tuesday nights, to maximise exposure for competing clubs and players.

"The Foxtel Cup will again have all the best state league teams on show, and these games continue to provide opportunities for state league teams to increase their professionalism, while allowing further chances for state league players to push for opportunities with AFL clubs," Mr Lethlean said.
