BRENDAN Lee's return has come in a blaze of glory and at a critically busy time for East Perth.

The Royals co-captain was this week added to the WAFL State squad which is preparing to take on the NEAFL (North East Australian Football League) for the first time on Saturday, May 24.

The WAFL State team will be announced next Wednesday night.

It may be a good omen for the WA side given Lee's State game record - two games for two wins! He played in WA's win over Queensland in 2011 and then in the drought-breaking loss to Victoria last year.

The NEAFL was introduced in 2011 and is made up of clubs from Sydney, Brisbane, the Gold Coast, Canberra and the Northern Territory. It provides an elite second-tier competition for reserves sides from AFL clubs in New South Wales and Queensland, the Sydney Swans, the Greater Western Sydney Giants, the Brisbane Lions and the Gold Coast Suns.

It will be the first time a combined NEAFL side has played a representative clash. They will be coached by Daniel Archer and the squad includes former WAFL players such as Jacob Derickx (East Perth) and Ryan Brabazon (Claremont).

Twenty-six-year-old Lee could not be ignored by the State coaching panel, led by West Perth premiership coach Bill Monaghan, after just his second game back from injury.

Lee broke a finger in the final game of the pre-season competition and missed the Royals first six games of 2014 - returning to have 32 disposals in Round 7 as the Royals accounted for East Fremantle, followed by another 31 in Round 8 as they beat Claremont to maintain their spot in the top three on the WAFL ladder - only percentage behind league-leaders Subiaco and second-placed Swan Districts.

“I knew I only had two games to impress if I was going to get a State call-up. I love State footy and feel lucky to be included in the squad,” Brendan Lee.

“It was a pretty solid break and I could have been out for up to 12 weeks,” said the dual Royals fairest and best winner.

“But it's healed ok and because I've still been able to run I didn't have to come back in through the reserves like I would have with a lot of other injuries.

"I knew I only had two games to impress if I was going to get a State call-up. I love State footy and feel lucky to be included in the squad."

Lee, who played every game last season after a year with Essendon where he played two games, gets a chance to rest with his teammates this week before possibly taking the field three times in nine days.

The State game is being played in Sydney on Saturday, May 24, as a curtain-raiser to the game between Greater Western Sydney and Richmond at Spotless Stadium.

Next the Royals have a date with Norwood in their first game of the Foxtel Cup this season at Patersons Stadium on Tuesday, May 27 – and then they face arch-rivals West Perth in a big WA Day clash on Monday, June 2.

"I spoke to Daws today (Royals coach Brian Dawson) and bar injury I'm looking at playing all three games," he said.

"I'm glad they've kept the Foxtel Cup going. It's a great competition to expose some of our up-and-coming talent on a national stage.

"As for the State game the NEAFL squad so far looks to have some good players in it.

"They've got three states to chose from so it should be interesting to see what team they pick."

During 2014, the Football Budget will again feature a section on WAFL memorabilia and invites you to write or email if you want more information about the football collectables you have tucked away at home.

Back in the early 1980s, there were some pretty kitsch items produced for sale.

The WAFL was taking its lead from the VFL and branching out into merchandising in a way that would never previously have been thought possible.

For a while, you could have almost any type of product with a WAFL logo on it, including your bank book (before we had bank cards, of course). You could even get your insurance organised through the WAFL.

Many of the items produced during this period turn up for sale regularly and thereby appear in this column every couple of months.

But others rarely, if ever, turn up. One such rare item is the club-themed toy mascot.

Each of these features a cuddly toy wearing a club jumper. The South Fremantle version is a Bulldog and the Perth version a Demon, while the East Perth version is simply a dark-haired man. Perhaps the key to dating them is that the West Perth version is also a man, rather than a Falcon.

I suspect these were probably made in the late 1970s and, in all my years of collecting, I've only seen the South Fremantle, East Perth, Perth and West Perth versions.

Of course, that doesn't mean they're worth a fortune.

From memory, the East Perth version that sold a few months ago – the first I had ever seen at auction - went for about $80.

Still, it's not bad for a 1980s kids' toy.

Now, the obvious question is whether anyone can send me pictures of the East Fremantle, Swan Districts, Claremont or Subiaco versions?

Since I wrote about penants a few weeks back, I have received plenty of emails about different types of penants people have kept, some of them for more than 50 years.

The penants I wrote about were those produced for grand finals, most likely by the Daily News, every year from at least as early as 1961 through to about 1977.

But, of course, there are others.

One was shown to me by an East Fremantle supporter, who had it on the wall to his house. Reading "24 in 74", it was obviously made to celebrate yet another Old Easts premiership.

But perhaps the most unusual one I have seen was celebrating a second-place finish – by South Fremantle in 1951.

The Southerners, who won the flag in 1947, 48, 50, 52, 53 and 54, were pipped by West Perth for the flag in 1951, but it didn't stop them producing a penant with the players' names on it.

It purports to also be a souvenir of the match played between South Fremantle and the visiting Collingwood team, which was held a week after the Grand Final.

If anyone else has an interesting penant, I would love to hear from you.

The highlight of the past week's sales was undoubtedly the massive price achieved when one seller auctioned off a 1961 grand final Budget.

Though the Budget was missing a triangular piece about 3cm x 6cm from the front cover, the bidding was fierce. Two Swans supporters eventually pushed the final price to a whopping $789.

It's a price unlikely to be achieved again. Regular readers might remember a 1965 grand final Budget, which was missing half of its front cover, sold at auction for $275 a few weeks back. One in comparable condition sold this week for $13.50.

Also in the past few weeks, a 1957 second semi-final Budget sold for $18, a 1952 Budget for $22, a 1965 Budget for $11.50, a 1967 preliminary final Budget for $21.55 and two 1964 Budgets sold for a combined price of just over $20.

In other sales, a 1984 Mobil Winners sticker for East Fremantle sold for $37 and a damaged 1934 Western Mail supplement, this time featuring West Perth, sold for $25. A 1982 Swans membership badge sold for $62, while a rare 1956 fixture card fetched $20.

And, finally, a 1992 State of Origin jumper, signed by the entire team, sold for $300.

INSPIRING INNOVATION

by Ross Lewis

SWAN DISTRICTS V CLAREMONT

When it seemed Tim Geappen had retired from the WAFL there was a concern about who would kick the goals for Swan Districts in 2014.

The black and whites faithful needn't have worried. Even with Geappen's decision to play on this year Swans have been well served with scorers in their seven rounds.

Ricky Cary leads the goalkicking race with 21. Matthew Jukes has 16 while Matthew Rogers has 13.

Geappen, who has marshalled the team's attacking zone, has 11.

That means the Claremont defence will be under pressure to stop the Swans goal flow.

It proved a difficult task against East Perth last round when Claremont conceded 19 goals. But the most alarming aspect to the loss was the Tigers' difficulty in making chances at the other end with just six goals from 12 scoring shots.

Luke Blackwell, Jake Murphy and Tom Taylor are getting plenty of the ball but Michael Broadbridge's men are struggling to convert the possessions into scoreboard pressure.

PEEL V SOUTH FREMANTLE

Now the Thunder will strike with anger.

Peel has been so close to victory this season. Take last Sunday. The Thunder looked to have victory in the bag before West Perth stormed home to inflict a one-point loss.

So the frustration the Mandurah club had been experiencing early in the season is starting to turn to controlled rage. And it might be South Fremantle that feels the full force in this round.

Jon Griffin has been a tower of strength in the ruck for the Thunder and if he can again give Peel the edge at stoppages then that elusive breakthrough win for 2014 might not be far away.

Some of the other Fremantle players, Sam Menegola, Tom Sheridan and Mitch Taberner, have also now settled into their new WAFL surroundings and are more confident in their football.

The Bulldogs enjoyed the bye, which might not have come at a good time considering they were building solid momentum with three wins in a row.

Adam Guglielmana, Jacob Martinez and Shaun Bewick have played key roles in the South Fremantle revival while Ben Saunders have again become a key target near the goals.

PERTH V EAST FREMANTLE

Expect Perth to come out firing from the first bounce in the battle with East Fremantle at Lathlain Park.

Too often this season the Demons have let their opposition get the jump on them in the first quarter.

While Perth have played strongly to challenge most of their 2014 rivals, playing catch-up football has proven too costly.

The Demons have plenty of in-form talent that can make life a headache for the Sharks.

Dene White would be very high up in the club's fairest-and-best count at this stage. Cameron Manuel showed last week why he can be important to the Perth cause and Michael Sinclair has earned high praise from the match committee for his recent efforts.

Cale Morton is starting to have an effect on the Perth defence with his penetrating kicking inside the 50m zone a damaging weapon.

Not even the return of Mark McGough has been able to lift an East Fremantle line-up that has appeared lethargic at times this season.

A team with McGough, Bradd Dalziel, Jamie McNamara, Brett Peake, Steven Dodd and last year's Sandover medallist Rory O'Brien should be performing at a higher level.

SUBIACO V WEST PERTH

The previous meeting of these teams seems so long ago. But it was memorable.

West Perth came away from the battle at Arena Joondalup in round 14 last year with a one-point win.

So much has transpired since. The Falcons are now defending premiers while Subiaco has gone from struggler to one of the strongest candidates for West Perth's title.

A pride of Lions has risen to the challenges set by coach Jarrad Schofield this season.

Joel Latham, Justin Joyce, Shane Yarran and Josh Deluca have been some of the lesser lights that have been shining in the first third of the season.

But it was Kyal Horsley who bonded the team into a force last week.

This match will also be a reunion for Subiaco ruckman Frank Stockley and his former West Perth teammates.

Yet Stockley has made the most of his move to a new club. His tap work has been important to the Lions.

West Perth continue to look shaky. The one-point win over Peel might have helped the Falcons hold on to fourth spot but they have a 3-4 record.

They will be hoping Andrew Krakouer isn't far away from hitting full match fitness and will need Shane Nelson, Marc Crisp and Steven Potente to help lift the team back to peak form.

Can You Help?

For three seasons during WW2 (1942-1944), the WAFL competition was restricted to players aged less than 18 years as at October 1, 1942.

Of the 587 players known to have debuted in this period, WAFL historians are missing a date of birth (and often other details) for 149 players.

Each week the Football Budget will list the playing records for eight of the players for whom birth and other details are sought.

These include:

- A. BELL (Perth 1942, 2 games)
- D. COOPER (West Perth 1944, 1 game)
- Melville Charles KEEFFE (West Perth 1944, 10 games) - died 2006
- Vernon William MANN (South Fremantle 1943-44, 27 games) - died 1964
- Dudley Ian McGIBBON (Perth 1942-43, 9 games)
- Charles L. STEWART (Subiaco 1944, 16 games)
- Ronald Clifford WATT (Swan Districts 1943, 46, 10 games) - died 1977
- Ronald WOODWARD (West Perth 1944, 2 games)

Any information that could help establish contact with or lead to full particulars being obtained on these players would be welcomed by WAFL historian Greg Wardell-Johnson (gwardelljohnson@wafc.com.au) or Judy Chalmers (9381 5599) at the WA Football Commission.

State 18 girls create history

Western Australia's State 18 Youth Girls became the first team in female football history to defeat Victoria Metro at any level when they took out the AFL Youth Girls National Championship in Canberra last week.

WA 7.8 (50) defeated Vic Metro 4.1 (25) in the grand final.

Inspiring performances from WA's Asha Price and Hayley Miller in the second quarter set up the win that was one year in the making.

Losing to Vic Metro in last year's decider by 15 points, the girls from the west played their hearts out to make sure history didn't repeat itself.

Miller starred for WA to be named best player in the grand final and Pool-A overall. She was named in the All-Australian side along with Caitlyn Edwards, Sabrina Frederick-Traub, Kellie Gibson, Tarni Golisano and Asha Price.

Telstra offers a chance to share in $150,000

Telstra has teamed up with AFL stars Chris Mayne and Mark LeCras to give away 30 $5,000 grants through the new "Telstra Club Commitment" program, meaning a total of $150,000 will be invested into the game at a grassroots level to help support clubs across the state.

Club representatives from registered local Australian football clubs are encouraged to enter for the chance to win. Fans can show their support, and improve their club's chances of winning, by uploading a photo of them supporting their club.

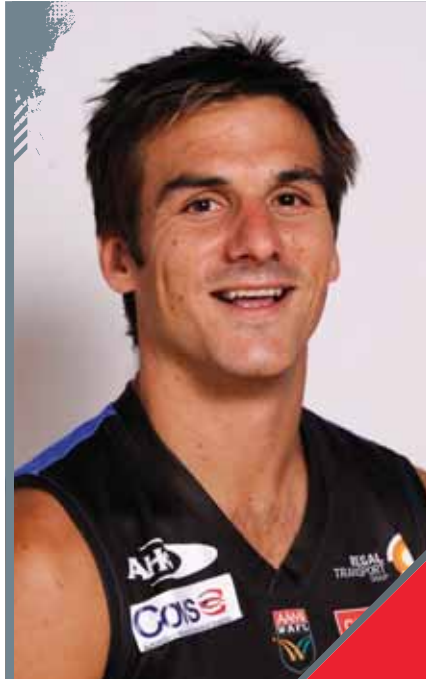

West Coast Eagles star LeCras credits the support of his own junior football club, Cervantes FC, as being instrumental to the development of his professional career and is encouraging all eligible clubs to apply for one of the grants.

"Footy was always my biggest passion as a youngster and I have some really fond memories of playing at a junior level," LeCras said.

"It was there that I learnt about teamwork, hard work and dedication to the sport which has been my life and my career."

To find out how you can help your club win a $5,000 Telstra Club Commitment grant, visit www.telstrclubcommitment.com.au.

Applications will be judged on the creativity and merit of the answer, as well as the creative merit of the community support. Hurry and enter as the competition closes Friday, May 30 2014.

Two WA umpires elevated

The WAFL and WAFC congratulate Filed Umpires Matt Adams and Stuart Parry on their recent elevation to the AFL umpires panel rookie list.

Adams is a relatively young umpire with a bright future, while Parry is a veteran WAFL umpire who is the most experienced umpire on the WAFL Umpire Panel.

Both umpires are expected to umpire WAFL each week, rotating as an AFL emergency umpire for Perth AFL matches.

Let's get to know each of them a bit better:

MATT ADAMS

Year started umpiring juniors: 2005 at South Fremantle District.

Year entered WAFL: 2008.

How you became an umpire: My brother was an umpire so I had a connection. One of my friends asked me down as well. Since then I haven't looked back.

Number of league games: 41.

Lowlight: I made a blatant error in Round 2 of this season. This decision was something I needed to know and I lacked composure to adjudicate effectively.

Highlight: National 16s in 2012, WAFL reserves grand final 2013, National officiating scholarship 2014, National 18s umpire 2014 and AFL rookie list 2014.

Funny moment: In a league game I have awarded a 50m penalty to a team and paid it the wrong way. I realised I was running the wrong way halfway through implementing the penalty.

Other umpire involvement: I coached the umpires at the South Fremantle District and for four years. These days I try to attend a few junior games to provide some advice to young up-and-coming umpires.

Outside hobbies/interest: I teach RPM/spin classes at a few gyms and love doing fitness classes. It helps me maintain fitness.

Occupation: I am a health and physical education teacher at Baldivis Secondary College. I am also a fitness instructor/personal trainer.

AFT returns for 2014

After huge success during the 2013 season, the WAAFL and LMSC have again partnered to produce Amateur Footy Time in 2014.

With 100,000 views on Foxtel alone, AFT is a fantastic way to highlight what is happening in WA's biggest single football league.

Moving forward, AFT's new vodcast style will be based entirely online and focuses purely on the WAAFL A Grade competition.

Transitioning to an online platform has enabled the WAAFL to target our audience in a way that allows stakeholders to watch the show whilst on the move.

Each episode features a Game of the Week, highlight footage, results, ladders and interviews with players and coaches on game day.

AFT will run throughout the season, with this week's episode showcasing footage from the Round 4 Whitford versus University game.

WAAFL media and marketing officer Sophie James believes the new style show will appeal more to the majority of WAAFL stakeholders.

"AFT this year is showcasing the A Grade competition to highlight the best football in our competition," she said.

"Transitioning AFT online has made the show far easier to access given that our target market utilise their smart devices on a daily basis."

Local Media Services Producer David MacRae is excited with the progression of the second season of AFT.

"Fans asked for more footy and that's what they're getting with the new AFT in 2014, it's going to be a great season!"

"AFT this year is showcasing the A Grade competition to highlight the best football in our competition,"

Sophie James.

AFT has been a great way to keep stakeholders up to date with what is happening in the WAAFL's highest tier of football.

With both clubs and umpires utilising game day footage to review game day practices, those enjoying AFT reaches across the various groups.

AFT Episodes are released on a Thursday morning, with full game footage from the Game of the Week also available online.

Previous AFT episodes can be found on the WAAFL episode, or via the WAAFL YouTube account.
