CONTRIBUTIONS CELEBRATED during NAIDOC Week

NAIDOC Week is about celebrating Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures and recognising the contributions made by Indigenous Australians.

For up-and-coming Indigenous East Perth District player Sam Powell-Pepper, it's the contributions of many of the people around him that is helping him grow as a footballer and a person.

:: Sam Powell-Pepper

Powell-Pepper is a member of the WA State 16s program that is competing in the National Championships on the Gold Coast from July 5-12. Last year he was involved in the East Perth Aboriginal Under 15s teams that played in the Nicky Winmar Cup (State Aboriginal Under 15s carnival).

The coach of that team, former AFL player Jarrad Oakley-Nicholls, has been a strong mentor for Powell-Pepper, while others who have assisted his development on and off the field have included former East Perth development officer Brendan McFaul, Powell-Pepper's Mt Hawthorn junior coach Steve Burke and Karen De Lore, also from Mt Hawthorn Junior Football Club.

Powell played in the WA State Schoolboys team and the WA Indigenous team for the Kick Start Cup last year – gaining Australian selection at both.

East Perth District Manager Troy Starceвич said the development of players such as Powell-Pepper was testament to the work being done in the Districts to nurture such talent.

"For the first time last year, the East Perth District had a larger role in organising players for the Nicky Winmar Cup," Starceвич said.

"In the process, we became aware that some of the players clearly had troubled home lives and that football could play a role in providing them with some focus and hopefully steering them down the right path.

"Jarrad Oakley-Nicholls and the other Indigenous players at East Perth at the time (Shaq McKenzie and James Warrell) did a fantastic job in providing mentoring for the players and were great role models before during and after the Carnival.

"I can't however take anything away from the support that the junior clubs provide, especially in Sam's case.

"The Mt Hawthorn Cardinals, and in particular his coach Steve Burke and team manager Karen De Lore, have given Sam tremendous support over and above what would normally be expected and certainly greater than anything the District or East Perth has provided.

"Sam often stays with Karen and her family and Steve has given Sam some work experience with his home renovation company."

As part of the NAIDOC Week celebrations the nine WAFL clubs will wear specially-designed jumpers that all have distinct meanings behind their design.

CLAREMONT

The three circles represent Claremont's past, present and future. They are symbolic of the club's strong past and how they are looking ahead to a strong future. The waves represent the waterway and swamps within the Claremont area as well as being energy waves. The jumper was designed by John Walley, Richard Walley's son.

EAST FREMANTLE

The Sharks jumper was designed by Rostrata Primary School Student Manisha Pillai. Manisha is in Year 6 and is 11 years old. The jumper also includes an element designed by Booragoon student Heidi Mischok, who re-imagined the club's NAIDOC Shark. The lines represent a track, with the circles representing people, so together it shows the community going to East Fremantle Football Club. The other design finalist was Jonty Bone from Our Lady of Mouth Carmel School in Mullewa.

EAST PERTH

The boomerangs represent the offence and defence as well as the past and present.

PERTH

The Perth design takes the original red stripe with energy waves infused throughout the stripes, which represents strength.

SUBIACO

The stripes signify moving through the land from campsite to campsite. The jumper signifies ownership of the lands.

WEST PERTH

Djinda is the Noongar word for stars and West Perth has named its indigenous youth team the Djinda Falcons, meaning the club is are looking to these youths to be stars of the future, both on and off the field. The two snakes symbolise the intertwining of two cultures and the feet symbolise walking together. The four large black circles represent different communities, all joined by pathways. The white stars (three, four, three) represent the 343 games played by West Perth legend and Djinda Falcons Patron, Bill Dempsey.

PEEL THUNDER

The boomerangs represent the offence and defence and the paw print represents the wild dog (dingo).

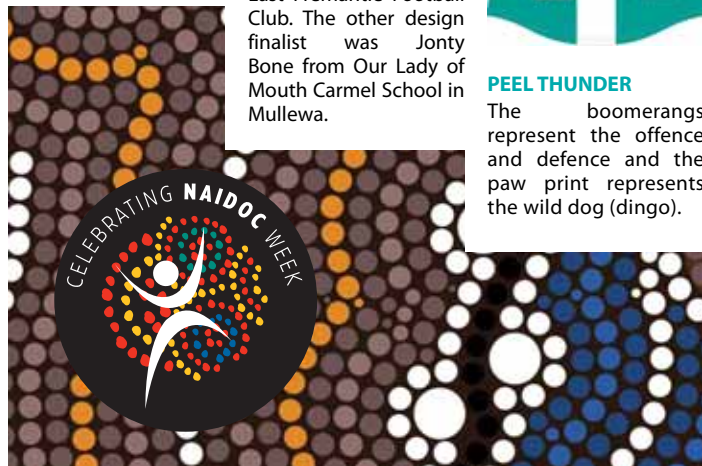

SOUTH FREMANTLE

In line with the original South Fremantle design - the two boomerangs were to replace the V. The two boomerangs represent offence and defence, which is the main use of boomerangs and is also a major part of the game.

SWAN DISTRICTS

The jumper was designed by two Kicking Goals students at Newman Senior High School in 2011. Colleen Gilla designed the front of the jumper with the circles with dots around the outside, representing an artistic impression

NAIDOC Round in the WAFL will feature a clash between Claremont and South Fremantle, a NAIDOC rivalry that has been nurtured since 2007.

Richard Walley and Neville Collard will perform a Welcome to Country and will be playing the didgeridoo at the President's Luncheon and on the ground before the start of league game.

“Jarrad Oakley-Nicholls and the other Indigenous players at East Perth at the time (Shaq McKenzie and James Warrell) did a fantastic job in providing mentoring for the players and were great role models before during and after the Carnival,” Troy Starcevic.

Presentations after the game will involve both clubs, with the winning team to be awarded the Jimmy Melbourne Cup, in honour of the first Indigenous Australian player to play senior football in a major Australian football league.

There will also be awards presented for best on ground, best mark, best goal and best tackle.

At HBF Arena (formerly Arena Joondalup), there will be a Welcome to Country ceremony, complete with didgeridoo, traditional dancers and elders, and smoking ceremony in between the reserves and league matches between West Perth and Swan Districts.

There will be a free Kids Zone, complete with face painting, bouncy castle and inflatable footy activities.

The Djinda Falcons – West Perth's indigenous youth team – will play an exhibition match under lights after the league game. Bill Dempsey is the Djinda Patron and Andrew Krakouer the Ambassador.

Both the League and Djinda Falcons will be wearing special jumpers, designed by local indigenous artist Hellena Stokes.

Perth has the bye this weekend but will celebrate NAIDOC Week in Round 16 when they take on South Fremantle at Lathlain Park. The teams will be playing for the Cable-Michael Cup and there will be plenty of free activities for the kids as well as sprint races.

During 2014, the Football Budget will again feature a section on WAFL memorabilia and invites you to write or email if you want more information about the football collectables you have tucked away at home.

I have to admit that I used to really dislike the sort of WAFL memorabilia that was turned out in the 1970s.

The mirrors looked tacky and most of the other items were, I thought, just plain ugly.

But I've changed my tune. I now think some of the most interesting of all WAFL memorabilia was produced in the 1970s, simply because of how colourful and unusual it was.

A case in point is a set of wall-hangings that appears to date to about the time when Perth was the best team in the competition.

There might be a few long-suffering Demons fans who can recall the days when Ken Armstrong's team, led by the likes of Colin Lofts, Rob Wiley and Murray Couper, was a perennial finalist.

But I wonder how many of them can remember wall-hangings that were screen-printed on felt?

Measuring about 45cm x 28cm, they had jarrah supports at both the top and bottom.

The East Fremantle version can be seen hanging in the fantastic historical display at East Fremantle Oval, while West Perth and Perth versions surfaced recently.

But I'm yet to see any for the other five traditional clubs.

As always, I'm hoping there's a Football Budget reader who might be able to supply a picture of one or more of them?

My recent plea for help with my own collection of WAFL club annual reports has brought quite a few calls from Football Budget readers, most of whom were able to help with one or two reports that I was missing.

I'm now closing in on my first goal, which is to have every club annual report back to 1990.

But this has also prompted a few readers to ask whether there are many collectors of club annual reports. My answer, to date, has been "not many".

I know of a few collectors who want the annual reports for their club – one for East Perth, one for West Perth, two for South Fremantle and one who only wants East Fremantle reports from premiership years – but I think I'm the only collector chasing reports for every club.

All of this means the value of annual reports isn't generally very high, especially for the clubs not mentioned above.

But all that changes with age. The older reports are going to have some value, regardless of the team involved.

All of which got me thinking about the oldest annual reports I have seen.

East Fremantle holds the record. The club has a copy of its 1904 annual report, which was typed. I have also seen a 1926 annual report for East Perth and I have a 1927 West Perth annual report in my collection.

But that's about it for the very old ones. The oldest reports in my collection for each of the other clubs are: Claremont 1948, Perth 1956, South Fremantle 1959, Subiaco 1954, and Swan Districts 1973.

I would be interested to hear from anyone who has kept some older ones, especially if you can provide photographs of the wonderful old covers. And other collectors are always welcome to send in a list of those they are chasing.

Finally for this week, we turn to the sales.

The seller I mentioned last week, who has been auctioning off a pile of Claremont memorabilia, has continued to receive reasonable prices for both old and new items.

Among the items sold this week was a pile of four Grand Final Budgets (2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012), which fetched $16, while another three Grand Final Budgets (2001, 2005 and 2006) sold for $13.

He also sold 11 Claremont annual reports for $20 and a couple of used footballs – one featuring Wayne Harvey and the other Ken Caporn, for $51 and $26 respectively.

A pack of Perth playing cards from the 1970s sold for the surprising price of $21.95, while most of the 1970s, 80s and 90s Budgets on offer failed to attract any bidders.

Meanwhile, Shane is hoping a reader might be able to help him with his collection of the Brownes posters that were randomly inserted in the Football Budget during the 1979 season.

There were 32 in the set and Shane is still looking for those featuring Phil Krakouer (C), Phil Kelly (EP), Ken Inman (P), Basil Campbell (SF), Simon Outhwaite (SF), Zane McDonald (S) and Alan Cransberg (SD).

Please get in touch if you can help.

State 16s set for National Championships

Western Australia's State 16s squads have been finalised for the 2014 NAB AFL National 16s Championships to be played on the Gold Coast, from July 5-12.

The Division 1 side will be led by experienced development coach John Hancock, who was the State 16s Head Coach last year and an Assistant Coach for the State 16s in 2010 and 2011 and State 18s in 2012.

WA's Division 3 side has been formed out of the North West Academy, which includes players from the Kimberley, Pilbara, and Gascoyne regions.

The Academy is managed by the West Australian Football Commission with the support of the AFL and in partnership with regional partners V Swans and the Kimberley Football Association. It will be led by head coach Clint Degebrodt.

The Academy players have undertaken skills training, leadership, nutrition and education sessions to enhance their overall development in the lead up to the Championships.

The final squads have been selected based on form, fitness and commitment to the program.

WAFL Pathways Manager Darren Davis said the Academy program aimed to provide a team and coaching environment in which every individual had the opportunity to develop.

"It's also a chance to display their talent, leadership and work ethic in an environment that prepares players for progression to WAFL Colts or the WAFL State 18s Academy," he said.

"We are confident that we have put together a group of talented young footballers who are more than capable of matching it with their peers."

THE Round 10 WA Women's Football League match of the round pits second against third as Swan Districts take on East Fremantle at 2pm this Sunday, July 6 at Steel Blue Oval.

With only six matches remaining before finals, four points for either side is crucial with only two wins separating first from fourth.

East Fremantle have been a story of inconsistency so far this season and come into the match on five wins and four losses after a heavy 62-point loss to ladder leaders Coastal Titans last weekend.

The loss highlighted a problem the Sharks have had for the majority of the year – dominating those sides around them but struggling against teams above them on the ladder.

So far they have only managed one win in four matches against the top two sides, Swan Districts and Coastal Titans, and come into this game having lost to Swans by 71 points back in Round 4.

If the Sharks hope to break the stranglehold the Titans and Swans have on the division they will need to recapture the form that saw them defeat the Titans by one point in Round 2.

Unfortunately, their job this week becomes much harder as Swan Districts welcome back an in form Chelsea Randall after her best on ground performance for Melbourne against the Western Bulldogs last Sunday.

Randall took 14 marks and kicked two goals against the Western Bulldogs and has proven form against the Sharks, kicking six goals against them when the sides last met in Round 4.

East Fremantle will also be bolstered with Mel Caulfield and Stephanie Walding returning to the line-up after lining up for the Western Bulldogs against Randall's Demons last weekend.

Rodriguez Shield

The Rodriguez Shield is awarded to the most consistent WAFL club of the season, with points allocated across all three grades. Clubs are awarded 10 points for every league win and four points for a reserves or colts win.

CLAREMONT V SOUTH FREM

Finals might be out of the question but there is a degree of optimism at Claremont.

The first half of 2014 was a struggle for the Tigers and there were fears the club was going to fall so far down the ladder that the only thing that would stop the slide was a spoon of the wooden variety.

But Michael Broadbridge's men have been far more competitive in the past three rounds. There was a nine-point loss to defending premier West Perth, a spirited fightback to worry the rampaging East Perth and a strong win over Swan Districts last Saturday.

The return of Mitch Andrews has helped the Tigers' cause. It was significant that Andrews and No.1 big man Mark Seaby dominated the ruck contests against Swans.

And it allowed Luke Blackwell, Ryan Neates and Andrew Foster to thrive in midfield.

However, there were also positives on the development side with Anton Hamp again showing great overhead skills, Hugo Breakey applying 10 tackles and Ben Daniher back in the best players in his second league match of the season.

South Fremantle kicked 17 goals when the teams met in round seven. Unless Nick Borovac, Brendan Verrier and Adam Guglielmana can revive the Bulldogs a similar performance might be beyond the team this week. Toby Bairstow is set to play game 100.

EAST FREMANTLE V PERTH

One move by Steve Malaxos might have become the catalyst for East Fremantle's mid-season WAFL charge.

Yet he didn't need a whiteboard to make the change.

Malaxos' decision in round nine to coach the Sharks from boundary line has been a masterstroke. His team has won all five matches with his ability to communicate directly with the players a key factor.

It was also significant East Fremantle won three of those matches by nine points, meaning Malaxos was able to get the right message across at the key moments.

Brett Peake has also been significant in those results. The former Fremantle and St Kilda player has slotted through 14 goals in five weeks and remains one of the WAFL's most dangerous forwards.

But the Sharks face something of an unknown with Perth in this round. For the first time this season Trevor Williams will be at the Demons' helm following the club's decision to part with Damien McMahon.

And it will be up to Joel Leeson, Matthew Moody and Dene White to help their new coach as the Demons strive to salvage something from a disappointing 2014.

EAST PERTH V PEEL

There has been much fuss about this match-up being the new derby of the WAFL competition.

The clash involves the two AFL aligned clubs. However, there is so much difference about the two teams.

East Perth might be getting solid service from its Eagles personnel. But it would be folly to believe that is the reason why the Royals are atop the premierships table.

The impact of hard working midfielder Brendan Lee, especially his on-ground leadership, has been telling. So, too, has been the input of midfielder Freddie Clutterbuck, defenders Mitchell Fraser and Kyle Anderson plus the work of Paul Johnson in the ruck.

The impact of hard working midfielder Brendan Lee, especially his on-ground leadership, has been telling. So, too, has been the input of midfielder Freddie Clutterbuck, defenders Mitchell Fraser and Nathan Blee plus the work of Paul Johnson in the ruck.

The Thunder's Fremantle contingent, especially Michael Woods, Sam Menegola and Jacob Ballard, will get a better indication of their development towards AFL ranks in this battle.

WEST PERTH V SWAN DISTRICTS

The WAFL's reigning premier will want to christen its new home with a victory against a troublesome opponent.

West Perth is still based in the northern suburbs but its base has a different name, HBF Arena, after 21 years known as Arena Joondalup.

The local ground has been unusually unkind to the Falcons this season with the hosts losing two of six matches.

Wins in the Fostel Cup and over South Fremantle last Sunday have injected some much-needed confidence into West Perth.

The return of Ray Bartholomew from injury has added much grunt to the West Perth midfield, Shane Nelson is back to his damaging best, Nic Rodda's forward line presence has been important and Jordan Jones' contribution off half back has helped the team's defensive rebound.

Swan Districts got the points in the round six battle between the teams and will again look to Matt Rogers, Jarrad Blight and Justin Simpson to lead the way.

Falcons to face Williamstown in Fostel Cup grand final

West Perth will take on Williamstown in the Fostel Cup grand final on Tuesday, July 22.

Williamstown took on and beat East Perth by 24 points at Patersons Stadium on Tuesday night to book a place in the grand final, which will be played in Melbourne.

Incredibly Williamstown recorded the 10.11 (71) to 7.5 (47) victory after flying into Perth the same day. Travel dilemmas meant it took the team 24 hours from the start of their journey to land in Perth, but when they did they were still full of run and will now battle the Falcons for $100,000 in prize money.

Kane Lambert was best on ground for the Seagulls who trailed the Royals by four points at quarter time.

East Perth's Fraser McInnes kicked the opening goal of the second term but after defender Kyle Anderson left the ground with a shoulder injury the Royals struggled to contain the potent Williamstown forward line.

By half-time the Seagulls led by two points and had extended that lead to eight by the final change.

The visitors kicked three goals to one in the final term to seal the victory. Brendan Lee and Brant Colledge were among the major possession-getters for the Royals.

Fight is on in C2

ROUND 12 of the WA Amateur Football League C2 division looks to be a pivotal one with the fight to stay in the finals race reaching do or die stages for a number of clubs.

With Carlisle sitting atop the ladder by just two points to second placed Canning Vale, every game is a must win as teams play to reach finals, or avoid relegation.

This weekend second-placed Canning Vale will host third-placed Bassendean in an important game for both teams.

With just six points between the two, a win for Canning Vale could potentially leap frog them into first position, while a win from Bassendean would result in them tightening the second-third margin to just two points.

Eight points separate fifth-placed Mosman Park from sixth-placed Warnbro Swans ensuring their match up at Warnbro Sporting Complex this weekend is sure to be a strong fight, and potentially the match of the round in the C2 competition.

Eight points separate fifth-placed Mosman Park from sixth-placed Warnbro Swans ensuring their match up at Warnbro Sporting Complex this weekend is sure to be a strong fight, and potentially the match of the round in the C2 competition.

With Mosman Park just four points shy of fourth-placed Thornlie, and Thornlie four points behind third-placed Bassendean, the ladder in C2 is a tedious place to be with big changes likely to take place after this weekend's games.

If they can claim the win, Mosman Park will move into equal fourth with Thornlie, while opposition Warnbro Swans will no doubt play hard football, eager to make their way out of the bottom five and keep their finals dreams alive.

ROUND 10 A GRADE RESULTS

Trinity Aquinas 15.9 (99) defeated Whitford 3.14 (32)

West Coast 7.7 (49) defeated by Fremantle C.B.C 15.9 (99)

Mt Lawley 14.14 (98) defeated Swan Athletic 7.8 (50)

North Beach 15.11 (101) defeated Kalamunda 5.2 (32)

University 9.3 (57) defeated by Wesley Curtin 11.20 (86)

Just below Mosman Park, and also on 16 points, is Noranda who take on bottom of the pack Swan Valley.

With the same dream as Mosman Park, Noranda will head into their game with confidence against Swan Valley who have just one lone win for the season.

Sitting just above Swan Valley, Coolbinia West Perth and SNESA also claim rungs at the bottom end of the ladder, sitting at eighth and ninth place respectively.

With only six matches to play and one win and one draw separating Coolbinia West Perth and SNESA, a win could prove to be the difference between remaining in C2 Grade or facing the drop to C3.

Despite the lowly ladder position of both clubs, both take on top four clubs that are also desperate for the points to lock down their position in finals. Coolbinia West Perth will host Thornlie at home, while SNESA travels to Carlisle Reserve to try and keep the ladder leaders from adding another four points.

The tail end of the season has numerous games that are must win in order for teams to secure their spot in finals.

Bouncedown for all matches is at 2.30pm, following Colts at 10.45am and Reserves at 12.35pm.

Can You Help?

For three seasons during WW2 (1942-1944), the WAFL competition was restricted to players aged less than 18 years as at October 1, 1942.

Of the 587 players known to have debuted in this period, WAFC historians are missing a date of birth (and often other details) for 149 players.

Each week the Football Budget will list the playing records for eight of the players for whom birth and other details are sought.

These include:

H.J. JONES (Subiaco 1944, 15 games)

J. JONES (Perth 1944, 17 games)

Richard Henry JONES (East Fremantle 1944, 1946, 14 games) – died 2013

Alan Henry SMITH (West Perth 1944, 5 games)

Eddie SMITH (Swan Districts 1944, 46-47, 4 games)

H. SMITH (West Perth 1944, 2 games)

J. SMITH (South Fremantle 1943, 1 games)

L. SMITH (West Perth 1943, 13 games)

Any information that could help establish contact with or lead to full particulars being obtained on these players would be welcomed by WAFL historian Greg Wardell-Johnson (gwardelljohnson@wafc.com.au) or Judy Chalmers (9381 5599) at the WA Football Commission.
