BMX

flavour for

Bunbury WAFL

BUNBURY* reveres sporting heroes and there will be plenty of those on show before, during and after this Saturday's WAFL game at the recently redeveloped Hands Oval between Swan Districts and East Perth – including some homegrown heroes.

Before the game there will be panel shows involving WAFL legends, while during the game fans will get a chance to see Bunbury products such as Connor and Nathan Blakely, Kirk Ugle and Graham Jetta (Carey Park) as well as East Perth captain Brendan Lee (Busselton) and Kyle Anderson and Stephen Payne (Margaret River) in action as well as current West Coast listed players who are part of the Royals line-up by virtue of the new alignment.

Connor Blakely is one of the 12 WA players invited to the NAB AFL Draft Combine in October.

To attend the NAB AFL Draft Combine, players must be nominated by at least four AFL clubs.

The Draft Combine measures a combination of athleticism and football skills as well as assessing each player's personality and character – all essential elements clubs need to consider in the drafting process.

The NAB AFL Draft Combine is part of the NAB AFL Rising Stars Program, which supports grassroots players and football communities and helps young Australians fulfil their dream of playing in the AFL. The NAB AFL Rising Stars Program provides recognition, and a clearly identifiable direction for a player's career.

The 2014 NAB Draft Combine will be conducted at Etihad Stadium in Melbourne from Tuesday, September 30 to Friday, October 3.

A further 18 WA players will be tested at the Perth State Combine – they include Swans Blaine Boekhorst, Ricky Cary, Alex Howard, Dylan Nelson. Boekhorst, Cary and Howard would all be expected to play league this weekend, while Nelson is yet to make his league debut.

:: Brendan Lee and Tallan Ames meet Bunbury BMX rider Lauren Reynolds

“I have a little pink footy that travels everywhere with me and I get it out and make some of the guys on the tour kick with me.” Lauren Reynolds.

After the WAFL game South Bunbury and Donnybrook will take to the field in their South West Football League fixture and the game should feature Eagles AFL premiership player, and former Swan Districts utility, Adam Hunter, who recently re-joined his junior club after starting the 2014 season with Chapman Valley in the Great Northern Football League.

Hunter last played for South Bunbury in a losing grand final against Harvey-Brunswick-Leschenault in 2010.

This will be only the second game ever played in Bunbury. The previous game was played in 1984 also between Swan Districts and East Perth with the Royals claiming a 14-point win.

She may not be involved in the on-field action this weekend but sports fans in general will enjoy welcoming Bunbury-bred BMX champion Lauren Reynolds back to her home town.

Reynolds is on a two-week hiatus after the World Championships in Rotterdam. She will be a special guest at the game.

The 2012 Olympian, who recently signed a two-year sponsorship deal with leading law firm Slater & Gordon, has always been a big football fan.

“As a family we are massive football supporters – it’s the West Coast Eagles 100 percent - always have been always will be,” said Reynolds who doesn’t spend much time at home. Instead she is based much of the time in San Diego, California.

“I have a huge passion for it. My brother and dad played and I just love everything about it.

“When I am home and I get to go and watch games it gives me goosebumps and it reminds me of how I feel when I’m on the big stage. It is just cool to see how the players deal with pressure situations and you can relate and learn from it.

“I have a little pink footy that travels everywhere with me and I get it out and make some of the guys on the tour kick with me.”

Following on from a disappointing result at the World Championships, Reynolds now has the 2016 Olympic Games in her sights.

“I’m disappointed with the result at the World Championships because I expected to be in the final but overall I’m healthy and coming back from a knee reconstruction,” said the 23-year-old.

“I have a new coach so there are a lot of new changes. There are still a fair few races to go this year and the end goal is Rio. There’s a lot to do before then and my focus is to get mentally stronger.

“I’m home for two weeks and then head back to California which is my second base and compete in the USA series.

“I love coming home to Bunbury – it’s where it all started.

“I love to go back to my local club and that’s now a World class facility so it’s pretty cool to see how much it has progressed and I love riding at home.

“It’s pretty lonely – you do a lot by yourself. But I’ve always been self-motivated. It’s why I do what I do.”

During 2014, the Football Budget will again feature a section on WAFL memorabilia and invites you to write or email if you want more information about the football collectables you have tucked away at home.

Some interesting collectables have come to light over the course of the past week.

But perhaps none of them were as unusual as this week's first featured item, which was kindly given to me by a descendant of two famous Fremantle footballing families – the Kellys and the Bromleys.

Harvey "Duff" Kelly was perhaps the most famous of the Kelly clan, winning premierships with East Fremantle in 1903 and 1904 and with Carlton in 1907 and 1908. He played state football for WA, before representing both Victoria and Tasmania, while brothers Otto, Ernie and Mick all played top level football.

Ernie Bromley, who married a Kelly, was also a premiership player at East Fremantle in 1903 and 1904. His son, Ernie, was a test cricketer in the 1930s.

The descendant once had a large collection of memorabilia related to the family's exploits, but has gradually pared back his holdings.

And one item he decided to part with was a broken finial from one of the flagpoles on top of Fremantle Oval's famous Victoria Pavilion.

Built in 1897 for £3650, the pavilion is now heritage-listed.

But the finial fell from the top of the stand many years ago and was collected by the descendant. It appears to be made from oregon (known as Douglas Fir in some countries), which was commonly used in Fremantle buildings during the 19th century.

I don't imagine it's worth a great deal of money, but one-off items like this do occasionally come up for sale and are of interest to collectors. For instance, squares of carpet from the old MCG Long Room were once sold at a hefty price by one clever young bloke who managed to salvage the lot some years back.

Either way, I'll be holding on to the finial.

The next of the unusual items was a little tassled display banner, owned by Claremont member Les.

I spotted the silk banner hanging from the wall in Les's study and it reminded me both of a Cardinals banner I've had for many years and a South Fremantle banner I was once shown.

I'm not convinced any of the three are by the same maker, but I would be interested to hear from anyone who knows anything about them or owns a similar banner.

Then, there was the watch shown to me by West Perth member Kathleen.

Bearing the "Joondalup Falcons" name that you would have to be crazy to mention to the West Perth faithful, the watch probably dates to sometime in the mid-90s.

But I haven't seen another of these and am not sure whether they were sold by the club or were some sort of promotional item celebrating the move north.

Early in July, I featured in this column some felt wall-hangings that appeared to date to the 1970s.

Measuring about 45cm x 28cm, each had jarrah supports at both the top and bottom and a colourful logo for one of the WAFL sides.

At the time, I knew little about them.

But I've now tracked down the man who made them – designer and printer Stewart Van Raalte.

Mr Van Raalte, who runs flag-making factory Pennant House, said he designed the "felt bannerettes" to help the WA Past Players Association raise funds.

His father-in-law, 1940s Perth star Fred Wray, had been heavily involved with the group at the time, Mr Van Raalte said.

They were printed on felt because his company had plenty of the material in stock by virtue of its contract to print and make all the wool show ribbons for the Royal Show.

Unfortunately, Mr Van Raalte didn't have any copies of the designs, which means only the Perth, West Perth and East Fremantle designs have been seen.

Does anyone have one of the others?

Again, it was a little quiet at the sales this past week.

A couple of 1971 Mobil cards, in exceptional condition, sold for around $17 apiece to start the week off.

The 1934 Victoria Park (Perth) badge I mentioned last week fetched $275, while a 1982 Swans badge sold for $40 and a 1983 East Fremantle badge for $12. There were also a lot of 1970s and 80s Budgets on offer, but only a few have sold.

Finally, my thanks go to Neil for the 1980 poster of Brian Douge and Subiaco annual report he gave me.

The only club annual reports I am now missing back to 1980 are East Perth's 1981 report, along with the South Fremantle reports for 1980-1981 and 1984-1991.

I'd love to hear from anyone who can help with one of those or earlier reports for any club.

If you have a query regarding WAFL memorabilia, send photographs and/or details to Sean at blackswan@inet.net.au or Sean Cowan, c/o Football Budget, PO Box 911, Subiaco, WA 6904. His website is at www.waflcollectables.webs.com and he also can be contacted on 0412 760 004.

Darling Range take out AFL Sportsready Cup

In a thrilling conclusion to the AFL SportsReady Cup competition, Darling Range Sports College took out the Cable Division title over a fast-finishing CBC Fremantle.

This year's grand final was played as a curtain-raiser fixture at Patersons Stadium before the Fremantle versus Carlton game.

The match opened up at a blistering pace with both sides physically testing each other early. Darling Range held a slender two-point break at half-time.

With both teams demonstrating some outstanding team football in the second half, it looked like the game was heading to extra time. A goal in the last minute by CBC brought the margin back to one point with 30 seconds to play. In the end Darling Range hung on for a memorable victory.

The AFL SportsReady Cup competition is the largest upper secondary school football competition in WA, with 3250 students from over 130 metropolitan and country schools competing this year.

Over the 26 years the competition has been running, about 80,000 boys have participated.

One of the major directions of the WA Football Commission and School Sport WA when the competition was established was to re-establish Australian Rules Football into all Secondary Schools.

Over the years football has provided the vehicle where values like loyalty, teamwork, respect, leadership, mateship, endeavour and integrity are taught. Both teams demonstrated these qualities in a highly skilled display and true sportsman's like manner.

Barry Cable, AFL Legend and WA Hall of Fame Member was on hand to present the Darling Range celebrate their win at Patersons Stadium.

AFL SportsReady Cup and medallions to the players, coaches and umpires.

Coree Thomson (Darling Range SC) and Michael Cronan (CBC Fremantle) were presented with the special AFL SportsReady Cup footballs used in the match as recognition for being their school's best players in the grand final.

The Rhys Kampen Memorial Medal was awarded to Keegan Dyer from Darling Range SC for his outstanding contributions throughout the competition.

West Australian Football Commission Schools Competitions Manager Clayton Anderson said the WAFC was extremely proud to have such dedicated program partners in AFL SportsReady, and thanked them for their support as major sponsors.

"We look forward to their continued support in 2014. Congratulations to all schools involved in this year's program we look forward to having them participate next year," Mr Anderson said.

2014 AFL SportsReady Cup grand final results:

Cable Division: Darling Range Sports College 6.4 (40) d CBC Fremantle 5.9 (39)

Jakovich Division: Warwick SHS 6.10 (46) d Corpus Christi College 2.2 (14)

WAFL says Count Me In for a fair go

The WAFL will be kicking goals for access and inclusion when the State's Count Me In vision is promoted at all WAFL games in Round 21.

:: An integrated football demonstration game will be a highlight at next weekend's Count Me In Round.

The Count Me In Round, which has been developed in a partnership between the Disability Services Commission, the WA Football Commission and the Department of Sport and Recreation, will promote the State Government's aspiration that we all live in welcoming communities that facilitate citizenship, friendship, mutual support and a fair go for everyone.

Disability Services Commission Director General, Dr Ron Chalmers encouraged all football fans to head to the football on August 16 to enjoy the game and also celebrate Count Me In.

"The Count Me In Round will remind people that everyone can enjoy the benefits of being part of a sports club – that could be on the field as a player, on the sidelines supporting the team, behind the scenes fundraising or taking part in the social side of club life," he said.

The round will include a demonstration game by integrated teams in the Western Australian Amateur Football League (WAAFL), Count Me In promotional activities and giveaways and coin tosses to start league games by special guests.

People with disability with Companion Cards and their companions, or people with specially marked tickets, will gain free entry to any of the WAFL home games during this round.

The WAAFL integrated football program demonstration game will be the main highlight of the game at Medibank Stadium in the Count Me In round, when Kingsway plays Coolbinia-West Perth at 5pm, after the Subiaco and Claremont league match.

For more about the Count Me In Round visit www.disability.wa.gov.au > About Us > Count Me In > Count Me In WAFL round or phone 9426 9667.

WAFC assisting with Suicide Prevention

The West Australian Football Commission will continue its commitment to suicide prevention through a $200,000 partnership with One Life WA launched by Mental Health Minister Helen Morton last Saturday, August 2.

Mrs Morton said the One Life funding agreement with the WAFC would see 36,750 young players and more than 15,000 senior community players targeted by specially trained Live Life Ambassadors.

"These ambassadors will be volunteers or officials from WA football clubs with a genuine interest in promoting mental health and preventing suicide," Mrs Morton said.

"Suicide is an issue that affects thousands of West Australians each year either directly or indirectly and accounts for about 27 per cent of all deaths among young men aged 15 to 24.

"Football has a strong influence over young males and by targeting this community we can help break down the stigma around seeking help for mental health and other problems in this very influential community."

West Australian Football Commission Chairman Frank Cooper said the WAFC was delighted to partner with One Life to assist in spreading this important message and implementing suicide prevention strategies within the WA community.

"Football plays a pivotal role in building healthier, happier communities and assisting with suicide prevention programs will be an important component of our 'Footy Plus' philosophy," Mr Cooper said.

CLAREMONT v PERTH

Claremont come off the bye and now sit in the same position as West Perth – both need to keep winning while also hoping those above them falter if they are any chance of tasting finals action.

The Tigers come up against a team with nothing to lose. The Demons sit on the bottom of the ladder and were largely undermanned last week. That means there's a cast of players auditioning for contract renewals in season 2015 as the Demons spend the remainder of this year running a fine tooth comb through their list.

From their last two outings the Tigers have come away with two wins and both were against top two teams – Swan Districts in Round 17 and East Fremantle in Round 18.

However, their last loss came in Round 16 against Peel when they were inaccurate in front of goal and went down by two points.

The Demons got hold of the Tigers by a massive 65 points in the opening round this season but they haven't met since then.

The visitors had some good targets up forward last week with Mark Deaves kicking four goals from five kicks and Matt Moody and Daniel O'Sullivan each finishing with two. Finding those targets will go a long way to the Demons taking it up to a Tigers outfit that has a forward line led by sharpshooter Jack Bradshaw.

It was way back in 1926 when these teams last met at the Showgrounds with Perth winning by 101 points.

:: Jack Bradshaw

SWAN DISTRICTS v EAST PERTH

Hands Oval in Bunbury hosts these two teams today as Swan Districts tries to regroup after last week's loss to West Perth and East Perth works to put more distance between it and second-placed Subiaco.

The Royals sit atop the ladder a mere 0.02 percent ahead of the Lions who have the bye this weekend.

The Royals were brought back down against the Lions after winning 10 straight and come up against a team that was also given a reality check last week.

Swans were handed a nine-goal defeat at the hands of West Perth. The Black Ducks started the season with low external expectations but have continued to show their ability to bounce back from adverse situations.

They have looked down and out during games and fought back. Their attitude has been all about enjoying their football and that has resulted in them playing some cohesive, admirable football this year.

Tim Geappen was held goalless last week so still needs three more majors to kick his 350th WAFL career goal, while Tony Notte is still two away from 150.

Callum Sinclair and Josh Smith held strong in the battle with the Lions last week but will need more support if the Royals are to continue their dominance over Swans at a country venue.

SOUTH FREMANTLE v PEEL

South Fremantle unearthed another talented youngster in last week's upset win over East Fremantle.

Jarrold Pickett, who turns 18 this month, nailed a goal with his first kick as the Bulldogs got the early run against the Sharks and didn't ease up. Pickett finished with two goals to add to the four landed by Ben Saunders and three by Anthony Collica.

Peel pulled themselves off the bottom of the ladder with a dominant win over Perth. Veteran Brendon Jones led the assault with great support from AFL boys like Colin Sylvia, Anthony Morabito and Hayden Crozier.

While both teams have just four games left in their 2014 season, the battle between the two midfields will be an intriguing one in this clash. Ashton Hams (33 possessions) and Toby Bairstow with 30 touches were getting first hands on the ball against the Sharks and putting the ball smoothly and calmly into the hands of players like Saunders.

These teams have only met once before this season and that was back in Round 9 when Peel broke through for their first win of the season with a 24-point win over the Bulldogs at Bendigo Bank Stadium.

:: Brendon Jones

WEST PERTH v EAST FLEM

It's all mathematical for these two teams as the WAFL finals draw closer.

Win all four of their remaining home-and-away games and West Perth could miraculously put themselves in contention to defend their 2013 premiership. That challenge starts this weekend against the team directly above them on the ladder and who they need to lose all three of their last three games to open up that path to the finals.

The Falcons responded to internal and external criticism to emphatically beat third-placed Swan Districts last weekend. Getting off to a flying start and kicking the first nine goals of the game set up their nine-goal victory.

The Sharks were on the wrong side of their own upset last week when they went down by seven goals to South Fremantle.

If the Falcons are going to make their mark this week Aaron Black, Shane Nelson and Rohan Kerr will again need to fire, while they will need to get their closer checking players to contain the likes of Sharks possession-winners Brock O'Brien, Rory O'Brien and Mark McGough. The likes of Dan Hunt and Luke Meadows will be relied upon to keep the Falcons defensive unit together once again.

TAKE THE 12 WEEK RE-GROWTH CHALLENGE TODAY AND RECEIVE A SCALP DETOX PROGRAM VALUED AT $400 ABSOLUTELY FREE

*CONDITIONS APPLY. BONUS APPLIES WHEN YOU START YOUR 12 WEEK CHALLENGE. TO QUALIFY YOU MUST HAVE UNDER 5 YEARS HAIR LOSS.

Integrated Football Exhibition Match at Medibank Stadium

After six seasons, and substantial growth across Perth, Integrated Football is getting the opportunity to showcase its first exhibition match at a WAFL ground.

To help celebrate disability and inclusion in sport, the WAFL has teamed up with the Disability Services Commission to present the Count Me In Round as part of their Round 21 fixtures.

One of the major highlights of the round will feature an exhibition match of Integrated Football with Kingsway AFC hosting Coolbinia West Perth at Medibank Stadium for their Round 18 WAAFL fixture.

The Integrated Exhibition Match will conclude a full day of WAFL football, with the Integrated Exhibition Match following the Subiaco versus Claremont league game at 5pm.

WAAFL Integrated Football Coordinator Greg Gilbee said the opportunity to play after a WAFL league game was not only an effective way to increase the awareness of the program, but would provide a highly memorable experience for those involved.

"Playing at Medibank Stadium will be a fantastic experience for the teams, with the Coolbinia West Perth team only joining our program this season," Mr Gilbee said.

Integrated Football is a great way for persons with intellectual disabilities to join a local football club and provide players with the same opportunities as everyone else.

Like all WAAFL teams, the Integrated Football teams train weekly, and play once a fortnight with slightly modified rules.

"At the end of the day these players are coached just like anybody else that plays league football – they are treated no differently," Mr Gilbee said.

"These are people with intellectual disability looking to be involved in the whole football experience, rather than just watching from the sidelines." Greg Gilbee

"These are people with intellectual disability looking to be involved in the whole football experience, rather than just watching from the sidelines,"

While some players have been involved for the entirety of the program (six years) and others are only new, they all have the same experience; one of positivity and development.

For those families involved, the benefits are obvious - with parents and players happy to discuss how playing has literally been a life changing experience.

"This [Integrated Football] goes beyond just footy – it's about good health, wellbeing and socialisation with others," Gilbee said.

"Our players are better placed beyond playing football because they have become more confident in talking to others. Skills like this can lead to employment opportunities, for example.

"I've seen an immense improvement in the self-development of everyone involved and their feeling of self-worth increases when they are a part of something where they are welcome – their community footy club."

WAAFL Integrated Football teams are based at Fremantle CBC, Coolbinia West Perth, Kingsway, High Wycombe, Lynwood Ferndale and Warnbro, with all teams welcoming additional players or volunteers.

Bouncedown for the Integrated Exhibition Match is 5pm at Medibank Stadium, with all information available at www.wafl.com.au/integrated.

South Bunbury on a run

South Bunbury notched up its sixth win in a row with a solid 55-point win over Collie Eagles and now shape as a likely finals contender.

Adam Hunter was the leading forward with four goals while Nat Fielding was named best for the winners. Warren Atwell and Chris Cross were Collie Eagles best players.

Bunbury bounced back after last week's loss with a 103-point thumping of Harvey Bulls to remain on top of the ladder. Aidan Parker had a day out kicking 10 goals for the Bulldogs, while the Eagles best was Kobie Somers.

Carey Park had an upset 4-point win over third-placed Eaton Boomers with David Roche and Viv Blurton leading the way with best on ground efforts, while Rohan Lilly was a stand-out contributor for the Boomers.

Busselton remain in fourth place after a 95-point drubbing of Donnybrook, while Harvey-Brunswick-

Leschenault notched its third win of the season when it downed last place Augusta-Margaret River by 29 point.

Can You Help?

For three seasons during WW2 (1942-1944), the WAFL competition was restricted to players aged less than 18 years as at October 1, 1942.

Of the 587 players known to have debuted in this period, WAFC historians are missing a date of birth (and often other details) for 149 players.

Each week the Football Budget will list the playing records for eight of the players for whom birth and other details are sought.

These include:

James BRENNAN (West Perth 1943, 18 games)

Carl Nino FRAGOMENI (South Fremantle 1942, 8 games) – died 1988

N. HILL (South Fremantle 1944, 3 games)

J.D. HUMBLE (Claremont 1944, 2 games)

Kenneth Henry ROGERS (Perth 1943-1944, 39 games) – died 2003

R.RUSHWORTH (South Fremantle 1942, 1 game)

John RUSSELL (Claremont 1942, 17 games)

Allan Percival James WATTS (East Perth 1942-1945, 51 games) – died 2003

Any information that could help establish contact with or lead to full particulars being obtained on these players would be welcomed by WAFL historian Greg Wardell-Johnson (gwardelljohnson@wafc.com.au) or Judy Chalmers (9381 5599) at the WA Football Commission.
