Keeping up with the JONES

By Ross Lewis

Team success drives the Peel brains trust.

But coach Cam Shepherd would also like to guide one of his most loyal servants to a couple of individual achievements during 2015.

Shepherd will witness another in round three when Brendon Jones runs on to Bendigo Bank Stadium – the 200th time the midfielder has done so at WAFL league level.

The next week the Thunder meet Perth at Lathlain Park and it will mark Jones' 100th appearance for the Mandurah club – coincidentally against a Demons jumper he wore 101 times.

The milestones are the mark of a successful State league career. Players don't last that long if they don't have the talent and nous.

However, Shepherd wants two more honours for Jones before the career comes to an end.

"Brendon Jones has been a great warrior for Perth and Peel but the one thing he hasn't had is the joy of being part of finals," Shepherd said.

"He has a real passion for that and, hopefully, at some stage we can get him there.

"He has never been able to play State football despite winning three fairest and bests at two clubs. If his form continues to be strong we'd like to think he'd be considered strongly for the State side."

A strong endorsement on the longevity of a 28-year-old who made his debut with Perth in 2004 and almost quit the competition at the end of the 2013 season.

The legacy of playing on-ball on the big WAFL grounds and plans to start a family twins had prompted retirement thoughts.

Peel gave Jones four months of think time. And lured by the attraction of helping out Fremantle in their alignment with the Thunder Jones played on and was club champion last September.

He was also made captain and Shepherd said he had been a vitally important link in the Peel playing group.

"After Brendon and Leroy (Jetta) our next (most experienced) player is a 35-gamer," Shepherd said.

"There is a big gap and Brendon bears that leadership responsibility very well.

"The Fremantle boys that come along are looking for leadership as well. At the weekend five of them were teenagers and they were finding their feet in the game.

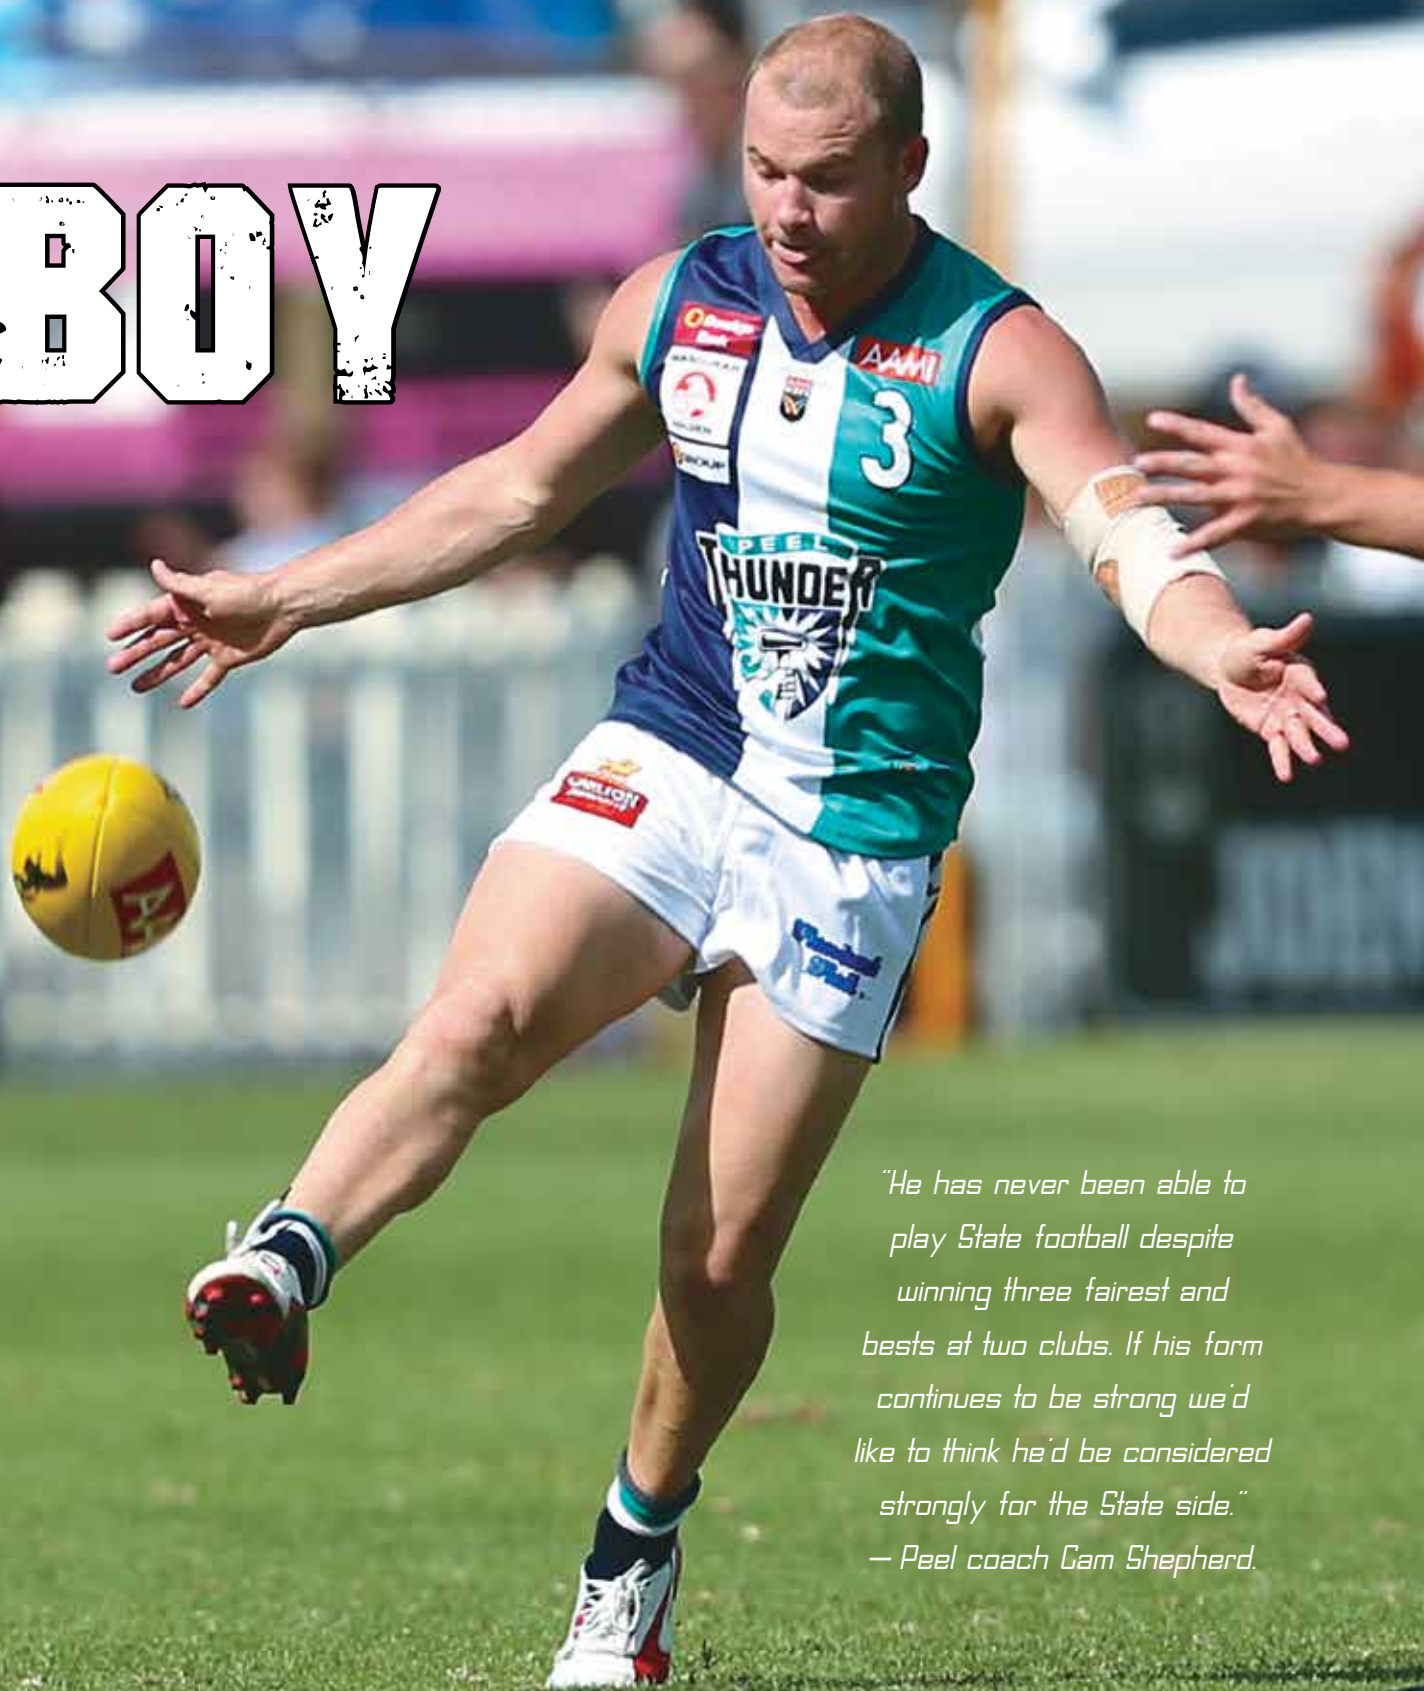

"So we really appreciate Brendon's contribution."

Thunder fans can be confident Jones can play a further part in blending the AFL and WAFL talent into the club's first finals contender.

"We think he's got more footy in him even beyond this year," Shepherd said.

COLLECTABLES

During 2015, the Football Budget will again feature a section on WAFL memorabilia and invites you to write or email if you want more information about the football collectables you have tucked away at home.

Over in Melbourne, there are plenty of collectors who chase after programs from matches played overseas by VFL and AFL clubs.

The earliest of these was in 1963 when about 1500 spectators turned out to watch Melbourne narrowly defeat Geelong at the Hickam air force field in Honolulu. The same teams met again about a week later in San Francisco.

Then there was a series of games in 1967 played by the touring Galahs team, which was made up of footballers from across Australia. These were played under the rules of the Gaelic game.

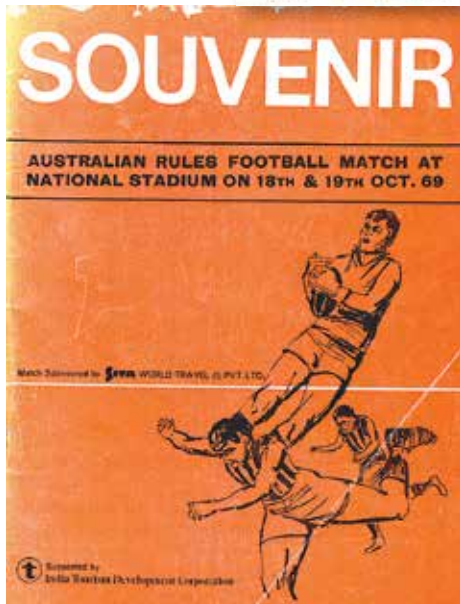

But what most of the Melbourne-based collectors don't know is two WAFL teams were next to play football overseas.

The visit of East Perth and Subiaco to New Delhi in October 1969 resulted in two matches being played at the National Sports Stadium.

The Maroons, who finished fourth in 1969, upset the WAFL runners-up in the first match. But the Royals fought back in the second to record an easy victory.

And, of course, there were a couple of items produced that may interest collectors.

One of these was the 75-page match program, which was produced by the India Tourism Development Corporation Ltd of New Delhi and features more advertisements than you ever thought it possible to fit into a single magazine.

I'm told one of these sold to an East Perth collector a few years ago for about $300, but I have not seen one sold at auction.

The other piece of memorabilia I have seen from this trip is East Perth's tour itinerary.

At 28 pages, it's actually a really interesting record of the trip, providing every detail, including the aircraft seating plan and the hotel room allocation for New Delhi and stopovers in Mumbai, Bangkok, Hong Kong and Singapore.

But what I have not seen is a Subiaco tour itinerary. Can any old Maroons remember whether one was produced for the trip?

Having discussed this tour with a couple of Royals players, it would seem there was a bit of bad feeling between the two clubs after Mal Brown knocked some of Graham Dearle's teeth out in the first match.

That doesn't sound like something Brownie would do, does it?

On the subject of tour itineraries, there have been other overseas itineraries, though these largely relate to leisure tours, rather than playing tours.

This one from East Fremantle dates to the 1970s and was for a players' tour of South-East Asia.

There are still plenty of summer sales that I haven't been able to report during the first two weeks of the season.

One of the best was for a West Perth carry bag, which appears to date to the early 1970s. It sold for $255 at auction in February, attracting spirited bids from four potential buyers.

Interestingly, a zip-up West Perth bag with the same logo sold privately for $250 a few years back. The material used in the two bags are exactly the same.

Carry bags like these are extremely popular and generally sell for anywhere between $150 and $300. Over the summer, I was also shown an East Fremantle bag that would have a few Sharks collectors salivating. It featured the phrase "Go East Fremantle with Gola" on the side. Gola is a British sporting goods company and I must admit having no memory of the company making a push into Western Australia.

Another unusual collectable to come up for sale was a South Fremantle towel, made by the Australian company Dickies sometime in the 1970s.

The seller said the previous owner had been given it when he trained at South Fremantle in the early 1970s. It was in great condition and was sold privately for $50. As always, I'm now wondering whether these towels were made for the other seven clubs?

Now that the season is a few weeks old, the usual requests from collectors have started to mount up in the WAFL Collectables email inbox.

The first was from Dean, of Melbourne, who collects drinking glasses from all football teams, including WAFL clubs. There are six known sets of WAFL glasses, plus countless glasses produced by the clubs themselves, so please get in touch if you can help Dean with any of these.

Gerry, of Balcatta is chasing East Perth yearbooks and has a pretty impressive collection already. A lifelong Royals supporter, he is also very keen on a rare East Perth bobblehead doll, should anyone be lucky enough to have a few lying around.

And I'm still looking for most of the South Fremantle annual reports from the 1970s and 1980s, if anyone can help.

If you have a query regarding WAFL memorabilia, send photographs and/or details to Sean at blackswan@iinet.net.au or Sean Cowan, c/o Football Budget, PO Box 911, Subiaco WA 6904. His website is at www.waflcollectables.webs.com and he also can be contacted on 0412 760 004.

PERTH SCARBOROUGH

SOUTH FREM V CLAREMONT

In terms of streaks South Fremantle is arguably the form team of the competition.

The Bulldogs have won seven matches straight in a run that stretches over two seasons.

But, significantly, new coach Todd Curley has started his tenure at the port with two wins.

While strong across the board, the Bulldogs have benefited from the tandem act of Ben Saunders and James Sellar in the forward line. The duo could stretch the Tigers resources.

Blayne Wilson has also settled quickly into the Bulldogs backline after moving from East Perth (West Coast) during the pre-season.

Claremont had the week off to regroup following the loss to Subiaco in round one.

However, the Tigers are hopeful of regaining captain Jake Murphy, ruckman Mark Seaby and comeback midfielder Tom Swift over the next few weeks.

South's Adam McIntosh is poised to play his 50th match.

WEST PERTH V PERTH

Kody Manning looms as Perth's target as West Perth seeks to build momentum in the clash at HBF Arena.

Manning has been outstanding in the Falcons' opening matches, proving the game is still about efficiency not quantity.

Not only has Manning's ground work been important but he has popped up as a goalkicker in 2015 and that will be a facet the Demons have to counter if they are to claim a breakthrough win.

Shane Nelson's ability to bring teammates into the game with handball, Andrew Strijk's clearance kicking and Jay van Berlo's defensive pressure will also be important to the Falcons' cause.

There has been a lot of gloom over Perth but the final quarter of the 10-point loss to South Fremantle last week will have provided considerable confidence to Earl Spalding's men.

Aidan Tropiano was again busy for the Demons, highlighting the success of his move from East Fremantle last year, Dene White is providing leadership and former Swan Brett Wolfenden is settling into his new surroundings.

Laine Rasmussen is in line to play his 50th match for the Falcons.

PEEL V EAST FREMANTLE

It is inevitable the focus of Peel each week will be the number of Fremantle-listed players in the WAFL team.

Yet, the efforts of two youngsters in the Thunder's opening match of the season last week were solid talking points for the Mandurah club's brains trust.

The performances of Nathan Fahey and Brayden Lawler indicated the Peel playing list might run longer than in previous seasons.

Dockers' AFL round one selection will impact on the Thunder with several one-match players likely to be elevated. But Brady Grey, Jacob Ballard remain and it will be up to the duo and local product Ed Dann to lift Peel to victory.

East Fremantle regain midfielder Liam Anthony after he missed the round two loss to Subiaco because of a wedding.

Brandon Ellis showed last week he could become a dangerous part of the Sharks forward line with five goals.

Peel's Brendon Jones is set to play his 200th WAFL match.

SUBIACO V EAST PERTH

The Lions have been attracting a lot of attention.

Last year's premiers have been just as damaging early in 2015, on and off the field. A fracas with some West Perth foes outside a nightclub has overshadowed the lead-up to the battle with the team they defeated to claim the flag.

No-one can deny Subiaco's fight inside the white line. Shane Yarran has been outstanding in attack with 10 goals from the two outings.

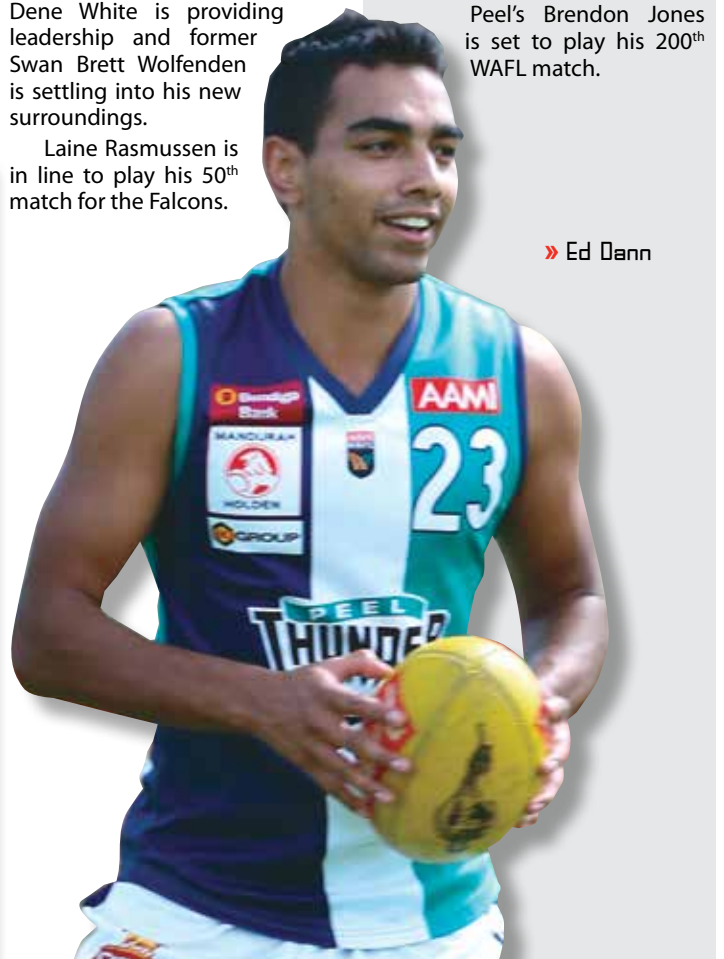

The Lions had plenty of midfield grunt last year but the addition of Victorian recruit Leigh Kitchin has added revs to the team's engine room.

East Perth has been awaiting this match since last September. While the nasty memory of grand final day won't ever go away the Royals will be keen to atone for the premiership result.

Garry Moss and Steven Payne will be crucial to the Royals' attempt to win the battle of the on-ball brigades.

Farewell Steve Bazzo

REMEMBERED for his dashing style and flowing locks as well as just being a "good bloke", football suffered a great loss last week with the passing of Steve Bazzo.

The 45-year-old passed away after a typically brave battle with cancer. He leaves behind wife Kylie, daughter Kameron and son Rhett.

Bazzo, who hailed from Carey Park, was bestowed life membership at two WAFL clubs, Swan Districts and Peel Thunder and also spent time with West Perth.

He made his league debut in 1995 with the Black Ducks, where he went on to play 158 games and kick 82 goals. In 1996 he headed to the Falcons and played 14 games (including one in 1997) before heading South to join Peel Thunder in their inaugural WAFL season, playing his first game in Round 9, 1997 and his last in 2000. He was made a Life Member of the Thunder in 2007.

Kylie Bazzo was the first female CEO of a WAFL club when she took the reigns at Peel Thunder in 2001.

"Steve had recently returned to the club this year as a development coach with our under 16's," Peel President John Ditchburn wrote on the club's website this week.

"Steve will be sorely missed by all at the club and within the football community."

Steve Bazzo's WAFL career:

Swan Districts – 158 games 82 goals (1988-1995)

West Perth – 14 games 2 goals (1996-1997)

Peel Thunder – 58 Games 22 goals (1997-2000)

Total – 230 games, 106 goals

Female coaches on the rise

The West Australian Football Commission hosted a Level 1 Coaching Course for females on Sunday, March 22, which resulted in 34 new coaches being added to the 25 that received their Level 1 accreditations last year.

In 2014, female football participation in WA increased by 78 percent with just over 33,500 participants making up 18 percent of total participation. To support this growth, the WAFC developed strategies to engage more female coaches and last year, the first Female Only Level 1 Coaching Course was held.

The course was subsidised and delivered to players within the WAWFL and Youth Girls Competition resulting in 25 new female Level 1 coaches. The event was such a success that it was repeated again this year and the attendance numbers were even more impressive, with 34 new female coaches of various ages and from various backgrounds taking part.

These were broken down into aspiring coaches from NAB AFL Auskick, Junior Girls, Kirby Bentley Cup, Youth Girls, WAWFL and Schools.

Level 3 coach Michelle Cowan shared her knowledge and journey when she presented at the course and said she was excited to be in a room filled with passionate female coaches.

"In 2000 I completed my Level 1 Coaching accreditation and I was the only female in the room," she said.

"When I attended my Level 3 coaching course I was one of three females, so it is exciting to see so many females now getting involved."

WAFC Female Football Co-ordinator Allana Dickie said she was pleased with the outcomes achieved for female coaches over the last two years.

"The strategy to subsidise the course for the players has had incredible outcomes, strengthening the partnership between the junior and senior clubs, which will also support the transition and retention of players," Dickie said.

"It was also very positive to see a number of teachers and mums attend the course, which we would like to continue to encourage and expand on in the future.

"The benefits of hosting the course in a female only environment gave the women the confidence to attend with no previous experience as everyone was at the same level."

Females interested in coaching are encouraged to contact Allana Dickie at the West Australian Football Commission on (08)9381 5599.

Rhinos and Red Hawks join WAAFL in 2015

The WAAFL would like to officially welcome two new clubs, the Forreestfield Rhinos and Yanchev Red Hawks, to the competition in 2015 taking the total number of competing clubs to 68.

The Red Hawks from Yanchev will compete in the E1 competition while the Rhinos will play in the E3 competition.

After a stellar season with the Metro Football League in 2014, including winning the Division 1 Premiership, Yanchev will take the opportunity to make their mark in the E1 competition and stamp their dominance in their latest venture.

The Forreestfield Rhinos will come to the WAAFL after playing the last two years in the WA Country Football League within the Hills Football Association.

Although it is their first year playing within the WAAFL, the Rhinos are by no means new to football with 2015 marking the clubs 40th year of existence.

Forreestfield FC President Troy Spencer said the committee and players were very excited to play in the WAAFL this year and that they were looking forward to the challenge and what the competition would bring.

"We will have to wait and see, but the team will be able to hold its own if they play the dedicated team football that was played last season," Spencer said.

"The boys are ready to fire."

Forreestfield will embrace their previous colours of red and blue and continue to play home games from John Reid Oval in Forreestfield.

At nearly the opposite end of the Perth metropolitan area, the Red Hawks will host games at the club's home at Oldham Reserve in Yanchev and run out wearing white, red and blue jumpers.

After months of pre-season training, both teams are eager to pull the boots on and take on the competition next week.

The Round 1 clash on April 11 will have the Rhinos taking on Wesley Curtin at John Reid Oval, while Yanchev will host Coolbellup at Oldham Reserve.

With the countdown to the start of the season on, both teams are looking forward to their inaugural season in WA's biggest amateur football competition.

West Perth

- Congratulations to 2013 premiership player Andrew Strijk who will play his 150th match with the West Perth Football Club this week against Perth at HBF Arena. Andrew has been a tremendous servant of the Falcons either side of his time with the West Coast Eagles, and indeed during, and his return to the club in 2013 full-time was a major reason for the eventual premiership. His best on ground showing last week against Peel Thunder showed he has plenty left in the tank as he reaches 150 games to claim life membership.
- The 'Paving Our Future' program has been launched to coincide with the redevelopment of HBF Arena and the building of new facilities for the West Perth Football Club. As part of the state of the art redevelopment, the club is fundraising to ensure the fit out of the new facility is of the highest quality. We invite all supporters to be part of this exciting development by offering the opportunity to purchase pavers that will be in the Walk of Legends that will make up the entrance to the ground once the redevelopment is complete. Contact the club for more details.
- If you haven't already, you can sign up for your 2015 Membership or renew for this season by calling the club on 9300 3611 or visiting www.falconsfc.com.au. ## CAN YOU HELP?

Since the beginning of the 1970 WAFL season there have been 4162 league debutants at an average of 93 new players per season.

The WAFL player database is missing a date of birth for only 23 of these players but the birth place and junior/previous club is not recorded for a further 240 players.

Each week the Budget will list the playing records of eight players for whom information is sought. These include:

- Peter Michael BELFORD (Subiaco 1981, 1 game)
- Graeme BOWDEN (South Fremantle 1975, 2 games)
- Brett William GENEFINI (West Perth 1993, 1 game)
- Bradley Scott GEORGE (Perth 1992, 3 games) – ex Boulder City
- Bruce William MEAD (East Perth 1972-73, 5 games)
- James Charles MILLER (East Fremantle 1970, 5 games)
- David Charles PARRY (Subiaco 1975, 4 games)
- Robert Peter VICKERS-WILLIS (Claremont 1978-80, 18 games)

Any information that could help establish contact with, or lead to full particulars being obtained on these players would be welcomed by WAFL historian Greg Wardell-Johnson (gwardelljohnson@wafc.com.au) or Judy Chalmers (9381 5599) at the WA Football Commission.
