Farewell to footy's loyal servant

Five decades of dedication to Australian Football will soon come to an end.

Grant Dorrington has been associated with the great Australian game his entire adult life, serving as player, coach, selector, commentator and administrator.

But next month Dorrington will retire, leaving the sport in much better condition than when he started at East Perth in the 1960s.

Before he packed up his desk as the Competition and Pathways director at WA Football Commission, Ross Lewis put Dorrington in the hot seat one last time to get his reflections on the code in WA.

Why are you so passionate about football?

When you grow up in a family (literally from birth) that has a strong cultural connection to our great Aussie game and then you play, coach and move into administration for over 30 years, it is part of your DNA.

The wonderful people, especially the passionate volunteers who you interact with along this footy life journey make it extra special. How can you not have passion when that's what the game is about?

Of which achievements in your roles are you most proud?

Being part of various management teams that have dared to take on the challenges of CHANGE that, that at times, footy clubs at every level don't want. These changes have included the formation of an independent WA Football Commission, our two outstanding AFL clubs, the Football Development Trust, introduction of Peel Thunder and obtaining a football home for our game's financial engine.

Other highlights include building the best talent pathway system in the nation, and the "never say die" attitude of the WAFL in continually striving to make this wonderful competition have a quality place in today's football family. They are all changes that have made our State's football system the envy of our nation.

What have been some of your toughest decisions?

Implementing the need for CHANGE in sport overall and in particular football is always extremely difficult as the game's outstanding heritage over 127 years has built a club culture of don't change, stay as it is.

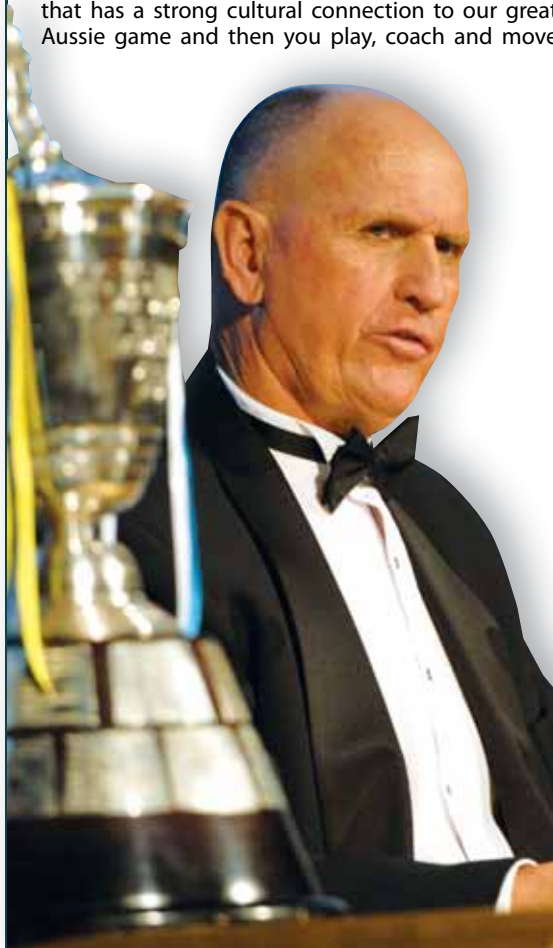

If there wasn't an independent WA Football Commission to make these changes for the future, our game would not be where it is today. Engaging all passionate WAFL club supporters to see that vision and be part of its exciting outcomes has seen many critics of the WAFC and me in my management roles. But I always have the belief that leadership is not about popularity.

Funniest characters to work/play alongside?

The beauty of our game is the many different people you come across. Club land is built upon the different characters that make a footy club. Every club has its own characters and hence stories. Some you can publish and some you can't.

There are so many great characters in my time that it would not do every one of them justice to mention just a few. But if I had to pick one standout the legendary JK Watts is most probably the funniest footy person I have come across. He has humour but never personally denigrates anyone.

He is a genuinely defined in footy as a "good bloke".

Best players you have seen?

How do you compare our game's earlier eras where players didn't have the dollars, training knowledge, full time commitment, today's sports science, video analysis and so on?

What I do know is that some of those earlier times champions Polly Farmer, Denis Marshall, Barry Cable, Stephen Michael, Bill Walker, Graham Moss, John Todd and many others, would still be first picked in any of today's AFL teams.

In the modern era players such as Adam Goodes, Wayne Carey, Darren Glass, Paul Kelly, Buddy Franklin and others are outstanding.

Our State has a record of producing many players of the highest levels of skill over countless years. Our WAFL pathway system will continue to do this in the future.

Is the game better now than when you started playing?

The game is different today than yesterday.

The game will always be better with the ever increasing technology, full time players/coaches, sports science and TV coverage. Life is about continual improvement so football must also be improving its product.

From time to time there will be rule amendments and with the number of full time media in the AFL, they will promote debate about every aspect of the game today.

That's great publicity.

In your time in football who have been the key figures that kept the game running on and off the field?

In approximately three decades of management there have been different key leaders for each of those eras, with each era having different challenges.

The Peter Tannock/Brian Cook and Jeff Owens period was fundamental in saving the WAFL and the game from financial ruin. It obtained a footy home, Subiaco Oval with a 100-year lease, it established West Coast and then Fremantle, created the FDT, introduced Peel Thunder and overall got our game's future funding and structure in place.

The McKinnon/Fong, Bradshaw era re-established the new position of the WAFL competition as our State's premier community competition. They were involved in building the integrated district footy model, investing strongly in game development, establishing the Hall of Fame and overseeing our game's participation growth from approximately 70,000 to 150,000 this year. This growth is again the biggest in the nation.

Biggest challenge ahead for WA football?

Without doubt the financial security of our game. This security is today underpinned by football's ownership of Patersons Stadium. It is the financial engine of the game in WA along with the two AFL clubs playing at our football home. Our game has a 100 year lease and therefore any new stadium cannot in any way compromise tomorrow's financial security. A new stadium is great but without our game's guaranteed financial benefits, better than what we have today, then the question our game's earlier leaders would ask is why move?

The current commission and football leaders have the challenge in front of them to obtain this financial security.

Can the WAFL thrive in the future? Was the alignment the best deal for the league?

The WAFL has been one of the great survival and ongoing growth stories of our game since the introduction of a national football competition. It has been the custodian of WA football from day one in 1885 when it was formed. In all that time it has never stopped moving with the modern changing world and hence today it is still our State's peak community competition, as it was in its inception. It has continually strived to improve. In different eras different clubs have success which "triggers" all other clubs to catch them and in doing so the competition improves. Maintaining and continually building each club's district connections is pivotal as that's where tomorrow's WAFL followers live.

The partnering club concept to start in 2014 will only continue this constant desire to "be better" and in doing this, the WAFL's future is as exciting as any other part of our game in WA.

Any regrets?

I have no regrets only appreciation for this great Australian game. It is a national icon that displays all the characteristics of our country i.e. loyalty to your club, strive to reach the top, new multicultural family members welcome, recognition of our wonderful Aboriginal players and their culture, supporters thinking they are able to umpire better than the umpires, close relationships with your teammates, never give up attitude and many others.

When you have grown up in this unique footy culture how could you have any regrets?

Will you still go to the footy?

Having grandchildren and most of my lifelong friends along with the quality footy people I have met and interacted with over my life journey, the game will never be far away from my daily life. I will still have my opinions about the game's future and will no doubt (perhaps under a pseudonym) continually challenge tomorrow's football leaders about our game in WA (and the nation).

To remain the best as we are today we must never become lazy in our ongoing need for change.

That's what today's world is all about.

Player of the Year

A race within a race has developed within the Football Budget's premier player award with a blanket covering some of the leading contenders.

Perth's Paul Bevan has joined Jake Murphy of Claremont in the lead for the Osborne Park Volkswagen WAFL Player of the Year award.

However, there is a band of players in striking distance of the leading rung at the half-way mark of the season.

The winner of the Osborne Park Volkswagen Player of the Year receives a prize worth $1500.

Fong has polled votes in the prize in seven matches, the latest a three-vote haul in round 11 that has given him a two-vote buffer over Ray Daniels of Subiaco and East Fremantle's Ryan Lester-Smith.

Nick Rodda has also been a steady performer this season and the West Perth defender has caught the judges' eyes in six matches.

Leading goalkicker award

In eight seasons and 129 matches with Sydney in the AFL, Paul Bevan kicked 39 goals.

This year with Perth Bevan has booted 31 goals from nine outings to be in a strong place to claim a rare double.

Not only is Bevan the current leader in the battle for the Bernie Naylor Medal but he is also a strong mid-season fancy for the Sandover Medal.

Bevan kicked seven goals in a losing Perth line-up last week.

Another Demon, Brennan Stack, has provided 28 goals to the Demons' cause in 2013.

Tweets of the week

Here's what some of our followers -- and those football fanatics that we follow -- had to say about all things football last week.

@CorbinMiddlemas - Only once since Perth derby became regular feature on wa day in 1997 has the crowd exceeded Freo derby. 4700 approx at EFO yesterday. #waf1

@FClutterbuck (Freddie Clutterbuck) - Stoked to get the victory today against the arch enemy. Nothing better. Love all the @EastPerthFC boys to bits. Proud to be one of them

An invitation for WAFL fans

I sometimes wonder how some WAFL items survive through the decades.

Books I can understand. They sit on a shelf and take up little room. And when people are finished with them, they usually pass them on to someone else.

Unfortunately, magazines (and Football Budgets) are kept less often. In fact, many of them are left at the ground, and many others are thrown out a few weeks later. Perhaps that's why it's so difficult to find anything before the mid-1950s.

But, what are the chances of an invitation surviving almost 100 years? Don't people throw those away once the event has been held?

Well, not all the time.

Last week, a 1922 invitation to Fremantle businessman Amos Staton to attend a complimentary dinner and social in honour of the visiting Fitzroy team found its way on to the market.

Strangely, it was sold in two halves. The front half sold at auction for $57 and the back half for $88.

I have an invitation to an un-named person to attend the 1927 West Perth annual general meeting. Has anyone got anything older? Or perhaps just as interesting?

WAFL collectables.

First, and perhaps most importantly, a sale price completely floored me. While sale prices are occasionally so high or so low that I find them surprising, it's extremely rare that my pre-auction estimate isn't even in the ballpark.

When Budget reader Steve contacted me a few weeks back to ask my advice on selling a set of 1971 Mobil cards (glued in the album) and an original 1961 Swan Districts premiership team photograph, I wasn't hugely excited about the prospects for either item.

I didn't give him an estimate on the 1961 photo, but I was thinking in the range of $50-$150. It also had a bit of a stain on it, so I expected it to sell for something near the lower end of that range.

Well, somehow, the photograph ended up selling for $1003 at auction. That is, simply put, an amazing price. WAFL club photographs have not been great sellers in the past. I remember a 1905 West Perth premiership photograph selling for $50 a few years back and a 1941 Claremont photograph has done the rounds at $165 recently without any bites.

It just goes to show how willing some buyers are to pay well over the odds to secure the item they really want.

One item I was able to more accurately price was a 1924 Perth membership badge, which went to auction last weekend. The final price of $212.50 was only slightly more than my estimate of $200.

An undated Old Easts badge sold for the disappointing price of $12 at auction, while a single lot of four South Fremantle membership badges (1986, 1987, 1988 and 1994) sold for $61 and a souvenir programme from the game between Collingwood and South Fremantle, played in Melbourne in 1954, sold for $72.

Finally for this week, I have the usual requests and some more thanks to give.

First, I'd like to thank collector Gary, who called me after reading about my request for information about a Jim Beam decanter from 1977, which recently sold for $56 at auction.

Bearing a Tiger's head and a football, I had never been sure whether these well-known decanters related to Claremont or Richmond. Well, it turned out to be neither.

It was actually made for the Balmain Tigers rugby league team and another, in the same series, was made for a New Zealand team and featured a magpie.

I guess I won't have either of those on my WAFL collectables website in future.

Meanwhile, I have had some more luck with my request for information about the membership badges and cards for the WAFL clubs.

My aim is to produce a list that details what the clubs produced each year.

I now have a good idea on where to find the Claremont information thanks to John, who emailed last week. But I could still do with some help for East Perth, Swans and West Perth. Does anyone have a big pile of badges from those clubs, which they might photograph?

And, finally, I'm still chasing a single West Perth glass to finish my collection of 1982 WAFL glasses, if anyone can help?

EAST FREMANTLE V PEEL

East Fremantle Oval

East Fremantle will want to regain its place in the top four while Peel can continue its challenge for a finals berth in what looms as an intriguing contest at the port.

The Sharks are licking some deep wounds following the shock loss to South Fremantle in the derby and confront a Thunder lineup buoyed by a string of solid performances before their bye.

While Cruize Garlett, Jesse Crichton and Hayden Crozier have lifted the Thunder they will need to build on their consistency through the middle of the ground to trouble the Sharks.

Developing a strong target in attack will be important for the visitors. Brad Holmes is a strong mark above head but he will need support for Peel to present a problem in attack.

Marlon Motlop might not have the height but he has the slippery skills to help Peel's goal production.

The Sharks can look to Bradd Dalziel, Mark McGough and Sean Henson to generate the bulk of their attack though they have also shown the ability to find game-winning performances from a multitude of fringe players.

Kris Thornton could play his 50th game for the Thunder.

Overall: East Fremantle 31 Peel 9

Kris Thornton

WEST PERTH V CLAREMONT

Arena Joondalup

Coming off its first loss of the season Claremont will want to rebound strongly against a West Perth outfit similarly stung in last Monday's derby.

The Tigers were held to just four behinds during the second and fourth quarters of last week's defeat at the hands of Subiaco and kept to their lowest score of the season by 30 points.

They will need to stay focused through all four quarters especially against the Falcons who held them to their previous lowest score.

The Falcons have missed the input of Mark Hutchings following his elevation to AFL ranks and will need Shane Nelson, Matt Guadagnin and Aaron Black to provide a challenge to a Claremont midfield brigade considered the best in the WAFL.

It must pain some West Perth supporters to see the Tigers' ruck tandem of Mitch Andrews and Mark Seaby considering both were former Falcons.

Limiting the impact of Andrews and Seaby, especially when he slips forward, will be crucial to Bill Monaghan's game plan.

At the other end of the ground Anthony Tsalikis has shown he can still be a danger near goals for the Falcons.

Overall: West Perth 147 Claremont 104 Draw 1

SUBIACO V SOUTH FREMANTLE

Medibank Stadium

After causing two of the biggest upsets of the season last week, Subiaco and South Fremantle will both be seeking to capitalise on their good WA Day work.

The Bulldogs had threatened to produce a strong performance despite their disappointing run in the first half of the season. They put that game together against East Fremantle and warned the competition how dangerous they can be.

Ryan Cook is an outstanding general through midfield, Sean Tighe has battled manfully all season in the ruck, Mitch Banner has emerged as a weapon and Ashton Hams has provided plenty of forward line experience to lift South Fremantle.

Alastair Gillespie is also starting to have an impact on the Bulldogs.

However, Subiaco has just knocked off the reigning dual premier who hadn't previously lost a match since last year.

The Lions have shown they have a multitude of attacking options, and Ryan Herring, Jarrad Kayler-Thomson and George Hampson have proven to be game winners against the Bulldogs this season.

Subiaco also has a strong band of youngsters, led by Ray Daniels, who have been effective in the team's boost in form over recent weeks.

Overall: Subiaco 146 South Fremantle 179 Draw 3

The Sunday Times WA Football Volunteer of the Week

The West Australian Football Commission is pleased to announce Mt Helena JFC President, Stewart Luxton, as The Sunday Times WA Football Volunteer of the Week.

Luxton is now into the running to win The

Mt Helena JFC President
Stewart Luxton

Sunday Times WA Football Volunteer of the Year Award, in which each district finalist is invited to the Sandover Medal and the overall winner is announced.

The State prize is a trip for two to the AFL grand final.

Luxton was nominated by the Swans District for putting in a mountain of work behind the scenes at Mt Helena JFC in the roles of Auskick and Nature Play Coordinator.

He also spares time in his busy schedule to chair the Advisory Panel for the Elsie Austin Oval Redevelopment.

Luxton is also working towards bronze level accreditation in the Quality Club Program in tandem with Mt Helena JFC Vice-President, Peter Allen.

He is a passionate advocate for the development of a strong Swans District Junior Competition and has provided a great deal of assistance to the Swans District Competition Director with fixtures for the Swans District Hills Junior Competition.

Luxton is a prime example of the volunteers that underpin WA's No.1 participation sport.

Throughout the nomination period of The Sunday Times WA Football Volunteer of the Year, the WAFC will be recognising a number of our wonderful volunteers that contribute their time to football.

To nominate a member of your club for The Sunday Times WA Football Volunteer of the Year visit www.volunteerinfooty.com.au

Children aged 18 months to 4.5 years will benefit from the Footy Fundamentals program.

Football to develop fundamental movement skills

The WA Football Commission and West Perth Football District will launch a new program on June 11 using football to build fundamental movement skills in children aged 18 months to 4.5 years.

Football is an Australian way of life, a lifestyle for many parents and a sense of joy for children growing up in local back yards across Perth.

Footy Fundamentals will trial as a 4 week program at Arena Joondalup on Monday 11 June for three age groups, 8 months–2.5 years, 2.5 years–3.5 years and 3.5–4.5 years where kids can progress on to the hugely popular Auskick model.

The program will be run on the football oval and within the West Perth Football Club change rooms.

"This is an exciting concept for football," said West Perth Emerging Markets Officer Scott Minchin.

"We have developed a program with the aid of local educators and physical education specialists that aims to prepare our kids for the future.

"Fundamental Movement Skills are patterns of movement that involve different body parts such as the legs, arms, trunk and head and include skills such as running, hopping, catching, throwing, striking and balancing. These skills are the foundation movements to more specialised, complex skills used in kids games, sports, dance and every day activities."

The program will emphasise fun in a structured environment that involves the parents utilising balls and football games to aid the child's development. During the period from 15 months to 3 years old, a child develops physical capabilities which progress from being able to "toddle" around unsteadily – having only recently taken first steps – into confident mastery of a broad range of complex child development physical skills, such as throwing, catching, running, balancing and kicking.

The program is open to both boys and girls with only 45 places are available - 15 in each age group class. The program will expand into a 7 week program in term 3.

Searching for tomorrow's umpires

Umpires, like players, progress through a Talent Pathway.

Those that are identified at Junior Football by the Junior Umpires Coach and are invited to attend one of three squads.

The Dean Margetts, Craig Hendrie and Geoff Hayes Talent Squads were named and established in 2009 so that umpires who live south and north of the River and in the Peel region could receive advanced coaching.

The umpires officiate in the WAFL 14s, 15s and 16s championships and also umpire in the PSA competition.

WAFL Umpire Manager Darryl Sinclair said the establishment of the squads meant that umpires could receive specific coaching throughout the season and hopefully progress to umpiring higher grades of competition.

"It is acknowledged that just like players, not all umpires will reach AFL Football however, there is no doubt opportunities are provided at WAFL Colts to further develop if they demonstrate a capacity to work hard," Sinclair said.

"Every umpire that was selected in the Michael Ball Umpire Talent Academy this year has already experienced colts football and though the umpires lack experience at this level, their commitment to training, coaching and meeting the core values has been outstanding.

"Graeme Zanich, the coach of the academy, conducts coaching sessions every week and said the value of the academy is that we can look at umpiring decisions via advanced technology which assists the umpires greatly."

Zanich said the accountability of umpires had certainly increased recently with umpire coaches being able to analyse all the skills and performances via modern technology.

The WAFC and the WANFLUA congratulate boundary umpire Michael Washbourne on reaching 150 league games and also Jono Laycock on last week umpiring his 100th league game behind the goals.

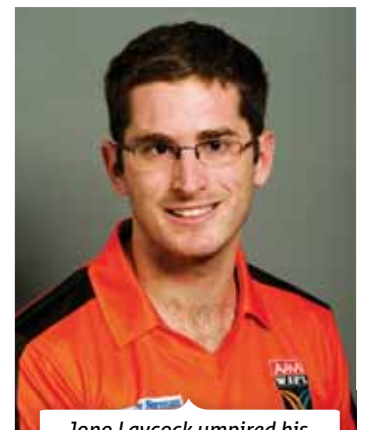

On Monday, AFL Perth based umpire Dean Margetts will officiate his 200th AFL game when Melbourne play Collingwood at the MCG.

Umpire Tim Giles, who joined the Academy in 2012 from Peel.

Michael Washbourne has reached 150 league games.

Jono Laycock umpired his 100th league game last week.

Kukerin-Dumbleyung in a thriller

In a thrilling match, second-placed Kukerin-Dumbleyung came from behind to snatch a one-point victory over an improving Boddington in the Upper Great Southern League.

Best-afiel Mal Roberts received support from Graeme Bolt and Nathan Ditchburn, while Jon Ward bagged three majors. Boddington were well-served by Dwayne Beach, Beau Heeney and David James with four goals.

Williams' winning run continued with hard fought 19-point win over Narrogin Hawks at Narrogin with the home side keeping in touch till the final quarter. Teke Vernon was named best for the winners, while Jon Price and Robert Rose were also solid. The Hawks were well-served by Perrin Quartermaine, Quinten Bolton and Isiah Jetta-Bolton.

Brookton-Pingelly have notched up their first win of the season with a 55-point thrashing of the last placed Wagin with Nicholas Haslam having a day out bagging seven majors. Michael Davies and Joshua Hughes were also good for the winners while Dustin Sprigg and Brendan Julius were solid contributors in a losing side.

Katanning Wanderers were too good for a disappointing Wickepin, winning their match by 62 points. Tim Fitzgerald showed good form with five goals to be named best with Joshua Bellve (five goals) and Kane Shepherd also good, while Corey Wilson and Tyron Miller battled for the Warriors.

State pride goes on the line

THE West Coast Eagles State Amateur under 23s are set to take on Tasmania this weekend, looking to win their first match of the two-year program and take out third place in the Australian Amateur Football Championship.

This year marks the season of the Australian Amateur Football Championships, and will see the four competing States play this weekend to decide which will be crowned winner.

South Australia and Victoria will play off for the title of Australian Amateur Champions with the Croweaters having the home ground advantage.

After eight weeks preparation, including a match against the WA Country Football League, the WA Amateur Football League team will take on Tasmania who were beaten by South Australia in the first year of the competition.

WA v Tasmania 2008 in Devonport

Although having been involved in games together in Melbourne, Devonport and Adelaide in recent years, the Tasmanian team last visited Western Australia in 1991.

West Coast Eagles State Amateur under 23s Coach Daine Burnett said the team had an advantage playing on home soil.

"The advantage of playing at home is critically important to the game style and the use of our spaces," Burnett said.

"Playing for your own state in front of family, friends and teammates is an excellent opportunity to showcase your abilities."

Burnett said the players' strengths were their ability to move the ball very quickly, as well as being on the move for a majority of the game.

"We will look to control the contested ball opportunities and create open options as much as possible with quick and concise ball movement," he said.

Although not being involved in the program in 2012, Burnett was confident with the playing and coaching squad chosen for Sundays match given their previous experience.

The full team is as follows: Adrian De Carolis (Mt Lawley), Matthew Buxton (High Wycombe), Callum Walley (Scarborough), Jordan Barber (Ellenbrook), Garrick McLaughlin (High Wycombe), Justin Joyce (High Wycombe), Trent Jackson (Scarborough), Travis Turner (Swan Athletic), Daniel Cripps (Trinity Aquinas), Corey McGuire (Dianella Morley), Samuel Mullane (High Wycombe), Matthew Edwards (Thornlie), James Lee (North Beach), Sean Bradley (Hammersley Carine), Tim O'Hara (University), Matthew Blackburn (Maddington), Josh Stott (North Beach), Cameron Fabian (Whitford), Cody McIlvenny (Canning Vale), Luke Richards (High Wycombe), Paul Anile (Maddington), Brayden Jones (Hammersley Carine), Matthew Bluett (Whitford), Michael Italiano (North Beach), Martin Astbury (Melville), Zac McCarrey (Wesley Curtin), Michael Newbound (Wanneroo), Ben Power (Trinity Aquinas), Lachlan Hall (Hammersley Carine) and Cordell Smith (Wesley Curtin).

The program has seen many WA Amateur Football League players rewarded with All-Australian selection, some of which have also gone on to WAFL, and AFL clubs, including Nick Kommer, who was drafted by the Essendon Football Club in the 2012 national draft.

Two important games will take place at Brownes Stadium, Lathlain on Sunday 9th June, with the WCE under 19's competing against the WAFL state 16's at 11.30am.

Bounce down for the match against Tasmania is at 2:00pm local time.

Can You Help?

In the 69 seasons since open football resumed in 1945, 6063 different players have debuted in WAFL league football. Of these, the WAFC, after extensive research, is missing a date of birth for 245 players. Each week the Budget will list the playing records for 10 of the players for whom birth and other details are sought. These include:

Tony Bradshaw (West Perth 1978, 3 games)

Mark Brown (Subiaco 1987, 1 game)

Nevill Calder (South Fremantle 1951-52, 14 games) – died 1973

Robin Arthur Lowrey (South Fremantle 1960-64, 23 games)

George Clare Moss (Claremont, Perth and Subiaco 1949-1954, 19 games) – rover ex Collegians Mets

Alan Charles Sales (Claremont 1956, 2 games)

Jeremy Schmidt (Subiaco 1990, 7 games)

John Shaw (West Perth 1949-1951, 17 games)

Alan Joseph Steele (Claremont 1956-59, 46 games) – died 2008
Douglas Howe Ward (Claremont 1948-49, 11 games) – died 1975

Any information that could help establish contact with or lead to full particulars being obtained on these players would be welcomed by WAFL historian Greg Wardell-Johnson (gwardelljohnson@wafc.com.au) or Judy Chalmers (9381 5599) at the WA Football Commission.
