SEPARATING on and off field emotions is a key to success in football.

Well it will be this weekend for recentlyinducted Subiaco Diehard Marc Webb.

Last week Webb became a member of the Lions respected Diehard fraternity alongside Allistair Pickett, Aidan Parker, Luke Newick and Chad Cossom.

In 2000, Subiaco's 100th year in the State league competition, the club recognised 100 people who had significantly contributed to the welfare and perpetuity of the club. They became known as Diehards, the name used by Dr Ken Spillman as the title to the book which depicts the club's rich history.

Every five years since then another five names have been added to the honour roll.

"It's fantastic to see the Diehards tradition grow. Since it's been established it's been great for our heritage and the people involved understand the importance of it," said Subiaco CEO Peter Capes.

"The Diehards represent the Hall of Fame for the Subiaco Football Club and its fantastic watching people embrace it."

While Webb graciously accepted his induction in front of fellow Diehards, club stalwarts and members, his focus had to quickly shift to finding ways for his midfield to overcome that of the powerful Lions in this Saturday's game.

This Saturday he will be working as an assistant coach with third-placed Peel Thunder to help plot the downfall of ladder-leaders Subiaco.

Webb, a four-time premiership player and three-time premiership captain with the Lions and a premiership coach with Claremont in 2012, was recruited by Fremantle as a development coach at the end of the 2013 WAFL season.

"The best part was being inducted with four guys who were a great part of my career," said Webb of being named as a Subiaco Diehard

"Being back with the boys was fantastic. Being so heavily involved in football my weekends are pretty much gone so I don't see them as often anymore, but when we do it's a nice chance to reminisce.

"Time goes so fast that, to be honest, sometimes you forget what you did. Nights like that help remind you what you were part of and watching highlight videos brings back some great memories."

Webb said when he first started coaching Claremont he found it tough when they came up against his old side the first few times. But as he prepares to be in the opposition coaches box again this weekend he said it was something he has had to get used to.

"To be honest, in the first game I coached for Claremont against Subiaco I found myself tracking Lions players instead of my own, but I clicked back into who I should be watching pretty quickly.

"I will always have a strong attachment to Subiaco but on game day I've got a job to do and I'm really enjoying it."

Subiaco won their sixth game from their first seven outings in season 2015 when they toppled the Thunder by 60 points in Round 8.

However, the Thunder have been one of the big improvers this year and Webb expects a closer contest this time around as his team strives to play finals for the first time in its 19-season history.

"It was really disappointing the last time we played," 36-year-old Webb said of the Round 8 clash.

"We've learned a lot from that game and while Subiaco have been the benchmark team this season, we expect this to be a cracking game."

Webb said the Thunder hadn't yet spoken about the possibility of playing finals for the first time in club history. Instead he said their focus has been on constant improvement.

"The reality is that there is not much between us in third right down to 6th, 7th and 8th," he said.

"If we get caught looking too far ahead to finals now we'll slip right up."

The 2015 Diehards:

MARC WEBB -- A four-time premiership player for the Subiaco Lions and one of the most consistent midfielders in the club's history. Webb started his football career at Port Melbourne in 2000 before plying with Perth in the WAFL in 2001. After 20 games at Perth he moved to Subiaco who were in the midst of a premiership push. The midfielder fitted seamlessly into the Lions and contributed heavily to Subiaco's 2004 premiership success and the subsequent "Glory Years". Webb was named captain of the Lions in 2005 and won the Simpson Medal for best on ground in Subiaco's 2006 premiership triumph.

After 176 games and eight years of service to the Lions, Webb hung up the boots to focus on coaching. He served as an assistant coach for Subiaco in 2011 before moving to the head role at Claremont.

Webb now serves as an assistant coach for Ross Lyon at Fremantle.

ALLISTAIR PICKETT – One of the most dynamicWAFL players of the 21st century with his story of determination and persistence an inspiration to the Subiaco faithful and WA football community. Pickett originally got his chance at West Perth where he played three games before a knee reconstruction derailed his footballing dreams. After doubting himself Pickett was drawn back into football at the Narrogin Eagles in 1999 and enjoyed a dominant, injury-free year. After impressing for Narrogin the little master gave the WAFL another crack at Peel. With a beautiful kick and deceptive speed, Pickett burst onto the WAFL scene to win his first Sandover Medal as a Thunder player in 2002. He moved to the Subiaco Lions in 2003 where he would eventually gather four WAFL premierships. Pickett won his second Sandover Medal at the Lions in 2004. After eight years at the Lions, Pickett retired and left his legacy. The club champion was later honoured as a Subiaco FC Life Member and a member of the Subiaco FC Team of the Century.

LUKE NEWICK -- One of Subiaco's most decorated players, the ruckman won four league premierships and three reserves premierships. Newick was the definition of persistence, eventually earning his place in the league side during the 2004 premiership season. He then played a pivotal part in the Lions consecutive premierships, operating as the number one ruckman in the 2004, 2006, 2007 and 2008 successes. Newick also represented WA on four occasions between 2005 and 2008. He finished his career with over 2000 hit-outs throughout his 150-game career.

CHAD COSSOM -- A ball-magnet for the Lions during his 214-game career honing his craft on the wings.

Originally from Kingsley, Cossom broke into the Lions league side in 2000 where he played 16 games in his first season. After the Lions assembled the pieces for a titleassault, Cossom won four premierships from 2004-2008. He had an insatiable work ethic combined with an inept ability to transition the football, which made him an in-valuable component of the Lions premiership sides. The silky wingman gathered over 2500 touches in his career and was a dangerous goalkicker of the run. The club legend called it quits in 2011 to focus on his professional career.

AIDAN PARKER -- Became a defensive stalwart for the Lions throughout the 2000's and enjoyed considerable team and personal success. The man known as 'Shuff' was a hot talent when he appeared on Subiaco's roster in 2001, playing 36 games before AFL club Adelaide showed interest. After two years on the Crows list and frustrating injury setbacks, Parker returned to Subiaco amidst a premiership frenzy. The Lions would unfortunately bow out in straight sets in 2005 but had a side capable of significant damage. Parker played every game between 2006 and2009, including consecutive premierships from 2006-2008. After a considerable changeover of the Lions list and Chris Waterman's appointment as coach Parker was named as the Lions captain in 2010. He claimed the club Fairest and Best in 2012 before retiring after 11 seasons and three premierships.

During 2015, the Football Budget will again feature a section on WAFL memorabilia and invites you to write or email if you want more information about the football collectables you have tucked away at home.

This week's featured item is a little left-offield and I've only ever seen a couple of WAFL versions in my years of collecting.

Back in the day when gentlemen wore hats to the football, they also wore coloured handkerchiefs in the pockets of their formal wear.

And there were plenty of tailors and drycleaners around town who saw this as an opportunity to advertise their services.

Coloured fabric was stitched to the top of an advertising card, to make it look like a perfectly folded handkerchief (or two) was slightly protruding from the top pocket of a gentleman's jacket.

The card usually included advertising for the manufacturer.

Previously, I had only seen Victorian versions of these advertising cards, but I recently discovered two West Australian versions, both featuring fabric in red-and-black for the Perth Football club.

The first included advertising for a tailor named Les Sharp, who operated in Hay St in the CBD. The other was for a drycleaner called Parkers Dry Cleaners.

Though the Victorian versions do sell surprisingly well, I can't imagine the WAFL versions would be worth much more than $20 apiece.

But they make a great talking point in my collection and may even get worn next time I attend a function at Lathlain Park.

It's always great to meet other collectors and this week I had the opportunity to look over a collection of Swan Districts memorabilia that belonged to Craig and his son Blake.

Craig started the collection back in the 1970s and had a huge stack of Football Budgets dating back to that time.

Unfortunately, the value of Budgets from the colour era (mid-70s onwards) has fallen dramatically in the past year or so.

But Craig had some other magazines that are probably worth a few bucks, including 1980s editions of the WAFL Players Association's annual magazine The High & The Mighty and some Fighting Swan magazines.

Craig had also kept his member tickets from the early 80s and a 1981 junior member t-shirt.

Better still was the football he kept from a 1981 game between Swans and South Fremantle. The Burley footy bears the Marlboro and Town & Country logos and the signature of Craig's childhood hero, Ron Boucher.

Craig also had a 1980s Swans tea-towel and four great newspaper poster that were produced to celebrate the black ducks' premierships in 1982 and 1983. These are great and highly sought-after today, though I wouldn't advocate getting them signed.

Finally, he pulled out a couple of great jumpers, one being a state jumper from the early 1980s and the other a 1990 jumper worn by premiership hero Greg Walker.

While the value may have disappeared from most of the Budgets, the other items would fetch reasonable prices at auction should Craig ever decide to part with his childhood memories.

Finally for this week, I have a backlog of requests that I have promised to publish, so have a dig through the boxes at home and see if you can help any of the following collectors with their collections.

Craig is very keen on a Swan Districts mirror and Swans drinking glasses from any of the eight known

Darrell is looking for West Perth mirrors, while an anonymous collector is keen on West

Perth badges from any era.

There are also plenty of collectors looking for the WAFL drinking glasses at the moment, so almost any glass featuring any club would easily find a buyer. Those with caricature logos are especially sought-after.

Last, but not least, I'm still looking for a few club annual reports to complete my collection back to 1980. Those I am after are East Perth's 1981 annual report, Swan Districts' 2012 report and the South Fremantle reports for 1981, 1984 and 1991. The holes in my collection are much bigger before 1980, so please get in touch if you can help.

SWAN DISTRICTS V EAST PERTH

Forward Matt Rogers looms as a key weapon in Swan Districts' quest to return to the top five.

But to achieve the feat the boys from Bassendean have to get on the right side of a Jekyll and Hyde East Perth at Steel Blue Oval.

At 186cm Rogers isn't the black and whites' main focal point but his strong overhead marking and ability to find space have turned the 25-year-old into a valuable attacking zone selection.

He is Swans' leading scorer in 2015 with 19 goals so the Royals know they have to keep Rogers quiet if they are to claim the win.

Rogers had six inside 50 entries when the teams met last month but East Perth emerged triumphant before almost 4000 people in 'The Valley'.

Alex Howard has been impressive for Swans in recent rounds while Nathan Blakely has settled back into the ruck after a belated start to the season because of injury.

Victory is just as vital for the Royals, who sit in sixth underneath Swans because of an ever-so-slight disadvantage in the percentage column.

A 6-6 record suitably represents East Perth's season. The club has gone up and down the ladder like a yo-yo. Another loss could be devastating to finals ambitions.

Steven Payne's willingness to work hard around the ground should drive the Royals at such a crucial time.

Swans' Aaron Elari is down to play his 100th WAFL match.

SUBIACO V PEEL

To butcher a quote from a past Prime Minister, it was the loss Subiaco had to have.

Another might not be treated with such ease.

There are plenty of wise Lions heads, Kyal Horsley, Darren Rumble and Brett Mahoney included, that will ensure the team's mind is back on the job in the clash with Peel.

The eight-game winning streak is finished. Time for the Lions to get back to work because Peel has shown it is more than capable of matching it with the league leaders.

Goal practice might be one area of strong concentration for Subiaco. A scoreline of 5.14 proved costly in the loss to West Perth.

Matthew Boland is back on deck for the Lions and he will steadily get back to peak form.

Charles Le Fanu is important in defence for Subiaco while coach Jarrad Schofield will also look to Kyle Halligan and Joel Latham to lift their teammates after strong veins of form.

Lachie Weller and Tendai Mzungu were impressive for Peel when the teams met on May 9. Fremantle selection will determine their WAFL fates during the week.

The Lions will have to be wary of Jacob Ballard, who was also a headache for Schofield's off-field team in Round 8.

Hendrie inducted into WANFLUA Hall of Fame

It's not every day that a star of the game agrees to joke about one of the most controversial moments of his AFL career.

But when Sydney's 2005 premiership captain Barry Hall learned that Craig Hendrie was being inducted into the WANFLUA Hall of Fame, he was happy to create some laughs.

Hall and Hendrie were famously linked after the Swans forward gave away a 150m penalty against Hawthorn in 2007. Hendrie only paid the last of those 50m penalties, but the photos show he and Hall in heated discussions that lead most people to think Hendrie was responsible for the lot.

Hall was in Perth in May working for Fox Footy when Fremantle played North Melbourne. He used the opportunity to joke about Hendrie on camera, while also congratulating him on his illustrious career.

"It was such a laugh," Hendrie said.

"On field, Barry was one of the scariest guys to be near even as an umpire. When you meet him off the field I found him to be a very engaging character.

"He always liked a chat before a game and was quite funny. For him to make himself available to be a part of the video tribute was awesome and it really made my night."

Hendrie has always been a popular character.

His 69 AFL games, 256 WAFL matches, games, six WAFL grand finals, three State games and four Montgomery Medals made him an obvious choice for Hall of Fame induction.

His rise also created history because he joined his father Rob in the elite club, making them the first father-son inductees.

"Umpiring has been something that the whole family has been involved in for most of my life," Hendrie said.

"It's provided us not only with some great on field moments and successes but we've made lifelong family friendships through umpiring. We've been able to travel to some great cities whilst umpiring and Dad has even umpired a game in London so it's provided us with an enormous amount of opportunities."

Fourteen Hall of Famers, and more than 150 umpires, partners, coaches and Life Members attended the induction ceremony at Bells Function Centre.

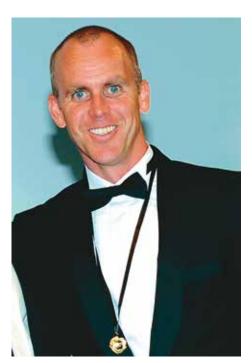

Inaugural Hall of Famer Trevor Cant was honoured on the night by being named Ball Legend for 2015.

"It's a very humbling experience if you consider some of the great umpires that are already part of that group," Hendrie said.

"I'm exceptionally honoured to have been acknowledged in such a way and I was pretty excited to become a part of it. It really does put an exclamation mark on my entire career and I'll have some fond memories to look back upon."

State IBs rebound with a win

» Callum Ah Chee was WA's best last Friday

The WAFL State 18s claimed a courageous win over Victoria Metro in the NAB AFL National 18s Championships at Simonds Stadium in Geelong last Friday, June 26.

After a 74-point loss to Vic Metro a fortnight earlier, WA created a 92-point turnaround to win by 18 points 11.6 (72) to 7.12 (54).

WA was led to victory by three goals from Luke Strnadica and two last quarter goals from Callum Ah Chee, who also had 13 possessions, six marks and four inside 50s to be named WA's best.

Brayden Hackett performed well through the midfield with 19 disposals for WA and Clint

VIC METRO -- Gresham, Perry, O'Kearney, Moore, Morgan Hinchliffe had another solid game with 18 disposals and six clearances.

Sam Petrevski-Seton and Sam Powell-Pepper showed glimpses of why they are rated highly for next year's draft with 14 disposals each, while Kade Stewart collected 13 disposals and kicked a goal after the siren to cap off the win.

Vic Metro's best player was Jade Gresham, who worked tirelessly to collect 20 disposals.

The win was WA's first since a one-point victory in Round 1, while the Vic Metro loss leaves them at the bottom of the division one table, having only recorded one win.

WAFC supports grassroots facilities

The West Australian Football Commission continues to support the provision of facilities for grassroots football clubs.

Recent funding announcements have included a clubroom redevelopment for Collegians Amateur Football Club and lighting project for City Beach Oval.

The Collegians project is a long overdue $2.7m project and with the support of the WAFC the club was successful in gaining AFL funding of $50,000 from the national Facility Development Reserve.

The majority of the funding is from the City of Nedlands ($2.1m), with the Department of Sport and Recreation contributing $500,000 and the Collegians Amateur Football Club adding a further $125,000.

The redevelopment will include a brand new main club room, bar and function area, three new changerooms, facilities for coaches, a medical room, storage and player areas.

The football club will be the main users however the new building will be a multifunctional facility that will be available for lease by community groups and for private events, parties and functions. The project is scheduled for completion in October 2015.

The City Beach Oval lighting project, pictured, was a Town of Cambridge project with the WAFC contributing $10,000 from its Facility Fund. The project was recently completed and officially opened on Friday, June 19.

WAFC General Manager Strategic Facilities Geoff Glass said the official unveiling of the new lights was a credit to all involved.

"A number of volunteers have played a significant role and the financial commitment and support of the elected members at the Town of Cambridge has been tremendous," he said.

"The WA Football Commission was able to offer a modest contribution and we are proud to have been associated with the project.

"Given football is a winter sport the need for lights to take full advantage of the existing facilities is increasingly important. Overall, with the refurbished and extended changeroom and function space and now the ability to meet night game standards, City Beach Oval is a first class community facility."

Race for finals tight in C1

Round 12 of the WAAFL C1 competition looks to be crucial with the fight to stay in the finals race reaching do-or-die stages for a number of teams.

In what could be match of the round, Bassendean host Lynwood Ferndale in a battle to secure the four points in a must-win game for both teams.

Currently sitting in eighth position, Bassendean have had a less than successful season, but will be looking to move another win away from ninth-placed Lynwood Ferndale who are currently one of two teams guaranteed a place in the C2 competition next season.

Bassendean will be looking for retribution this Saturday having been beaten by 12 points during their Round 3 encounter against the Panthers at Ferndale Park.

For Lynwood Ferndale, a win would move them into shared eighth spot with Bassendean.

At the top end of the table, Quinns Districts have only lost one game for the season and sit two wins clear of the chasing pack.

With their only loss coming last weekend against third-placed Carlisle, Quinns Districts will come out firing this Saturday against sixth-placed Kingsley at Kingsley Park.

If Kingsley win their game they will move up the ladder, with the outcome of the Bullcreek Leeming and Ocean Ridge game deciding whether Kingsley move into fourth or fifth position. Aound I3 A Grade Aesults

In what is sure to be a tight game, the Bullcreek Leeming versus Ocean Ridge fixture will exhibit strong football with both teams chasing finals and Ocean Ridge just two points below Bullcreek Leeming on the ladder.

In thei Round 3 match the Bombers stole a win from the Ocean Ridge home game, meaning the Ocean Ridge Eagles will be looking to do the same this Saturday.

With second to sixth position separated by just two wins, the race for finals is well and truly on, with all clubs determined not to let any points slip in what could be danger matches.

Carlisle will host seventh-placed Willetton, while cellar dwellers Gosnells host secondplaced Melville who have proved to be tough competition this season with eight wins and just three losses.

Guy Langdon was the leading goal kicker with six, while Zac Langdon (three goals) added support. The Falcon's best was Jesse Maiorana with two goals.

South Hedland strengthened its grip on second spot with a comfortable 89-point win over Karratha Kats with Kristopher Strahan (five goals), Alexander Frawnfezter and Mohammed Razali showing form with three goals each. #### Claremont

Claremont Football Club Banquet Auction - Saturday, 25th July, 2015 @ 6.30pm.

Round 16 will mark the annual NAIDOC round as the tigers take on the Bulldogs at home. Claremont and South Fremantle initiated the WAFL's NAIDOC Round celebration beginning with their annual match dating back to 2007, and now the clubs with perhaps the strongest Indigenous heritage in Australia do battle again at the Claremont Showgrounds on Saturday 11th July. With such a strong tradition of Aboriginal players representing Claremont including Jim and Phil Krakouer, Richmond flyer Michael Mitchell, WCE champion Chris Lewis, and recent WAFL premiership players Gerrick Weedon and Alroy Gilligan; Current indigenous league regulars Keifer Yu, Shane McAdam and Francis Watson will look to help the tigers avenge their round 3 loss from earlier this year.

Once again, both sides will be wearing special jumpers designed by respected indigenous artist Richard Walley to recognise the NAIDOC tradition. Be sure to get down to the showgrounds and cheer the boys on as they look to kick start a run home to the finals in 2015.

CAN YOU HELP?

Since the beginning of the 1970 WAFL season there have been 4162 league debutants at an average of 93 new players per season.

The WAFL player database is missing a date of birth for only 23 of these players but the birth place and junior/previous club is not recorded for a further 240 players.

Each week the Budget will list the playing records of eight players for whom information is sought. These include: Gary James BATT (East Perth 1987-88, 7 games) Mark BROWN (Subiaco 1987, 1 game) Steven Morris DAVIS (Swan Districts 1982, 1 game) Michael John DE VATTIMO (East Perth 1974, 6 games) Brian John HEMMING (Swan Districts 1977-80, 29 games) Robert Alex MARONI (East Perth 1982, 2 games) John Michael O'CONNELL (Subiaco 1977, 5 games) Michael WILLIAMS (Subiaco 1991, 1 game)

Any information that could help establish contact with, or lead to full particulars being obtained on these players would be welcomed by WAFL historian Greg Wardell-Johnson (gwardelljohnson@wafc.com. au) or Judy Chalmers (9381 5599) at the WA Football Commission.
